THESE WE REMEMBER

RICHARD COLEMAN, DALLAS
MICHAEL JONES, HOUSTON

SAFE IN THEIR ALABASTER CHAMBERS

*Safe in their alabaster chambers-
Untouched by the morning-
And untouched by the noon-
Lie the meek members of the Resurrection-
Rafters of satin - and roof of stone!*

*Grand go the years - in the crescent above them
Worlds scoop their arcs-
And firmaments - row-
Diadems- drop- and Doges - surrender-
Soundless as dots - on a disc of snow-*

-Emily Dickinson

I VOW TO THEE

*I vow to thee, my country, all earthly things above,
Entire and whole and perfect, the service of my love:
The love that asks no question, the love that stands the test,
That lays upon the altar the dearest and the best;
The love that never falters, the love that pays the price,
The love that makes undaunted the final sacrifice.*

*And there's another country, I've heard of long ago,
Most dear to them that love her, most great to them that know;
We may not count her armies, we may not see her King;
Her fortress is a faithful heart, her pride is suffering;
And soul by soul and silently her shining bounds increase,
And her ways are ways of gentleness and all her paths are peace.*

I love you for what you are,
But I love you yet more for what you are going to be.

I love you not so much for realities
as for your ideals.

Not always shall you be what
you are now

You are going forward toward something great. I am on the way with you and therefore I love you.

O my love's like a red, red rose,
That's newly sprung in June;
O my love's like the melodie
That's sweetly played in tune.

As fair thou art my bonnie lass,
So deep in love am I;
And I will love thee still, my dear
Till all the seas gang dry.

Till all the seas gang dry, my dear,
And the rocks melt, with the sun;
I will love thee still, my dear
While the sands of life shall run.

And fare thee well, my only love!
And fare thee well, a while
And I will come again, my love
Though it were a thousand mile.

AMERICA

Although she feeds me bread of bitterness,
And sinks into my throat her tiger's tooth,
Stealing my breath of life, I will confess
I love this cultured hell that tests my youth!
Her vigor flows like tides into my blood,
Giving me strength erect against her hate.
Her bigness sweeps my being like a flood.
Yet as a rebel fronts a king in state,
I stand within her walls with not a shred
Of terror, malice, not a word of jeer.
Darkly I gaze into the days ahead,
And see her might and granite wonders there,
Beneath the touch of Time's unerring hand,
Like priceless treasures sink in the sand.

-Claude McKay
