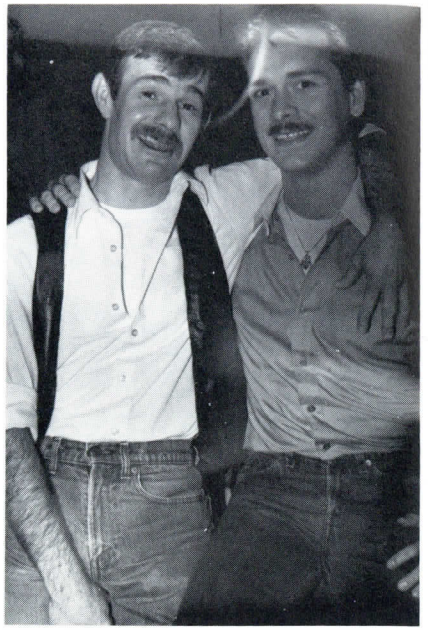
Carrie, assistant manager at The Stud keeps his customers, like Jerry of Midtown Properties, happy.



Crazy Ray'z bartenders Bill & Darris are behind the bar every Saturday.

Greg (l) and Michael (r) toast to the New Year at The Bar with owner Dennis Wirzman.

Dear Diamond Lil,

Dear Readers,

In responding to these letters, it is not my desire to set down hard and fast conduct rules. I am merely offering other options that the letter writer might have overlooked. Of course, since I do not know the actual persons in volved and can only go by the content of the writer's letter itself, and since I know certain circumstances can alter things, under these conditions my suggestions must not be considered authoritative in any instance.

As we embark on a brand new year with new hope and aspirations, I want to take this moment to wish each and everyone of you a very prosperous and happy 1984.

I love you all,
Diamond Lil

Dear Diamond Lil,

As the rejected and wounded "babe" you described in your column, I feel I must respond to the letter sent in by "Spaghetti of D.C." two weeks ago.

How would you feel, Lil, if you were slandered in a magazine? Spaghetti's noodle is all wet!

I broke off from that guy some months ago because I was ready to settle down and he wasn't. He didn't acknowledge our relationship to his friends whom I had met (including one guy visiting from "2,000 miles away"). I had also met his family over the phone since he had previously lived there. His seventeen year old sister visited us a couple of times.

As I said, this was over until I began getting phone calls at all hours from him; crying scenes at my doorstep; flowers of apology; he even came to my place of business seeking professional services "to be near me." He was drinking a lot and ODed twice, sending him to the hospital. He wanted my friendship.

Then he disappeared, and I became concerned for his health. His family hadn't heard from him and roared with laughter when I mentioned his old, nagging "war wound." Turns out, Mr. Spaghetti has served our country chiefly as a drunken liar.

It disgusted me, Lil, how he could tramp over the graves of Vietnam soldiers with that macho-fag lie!

Since then, I have come to understand the problems this "wet noodle" has created for himself and his family. I won't compromise them with further tales of his shenanigans.

Aren't you tired of phonies with condescending attitudes? I am. No more Spaghetti-oes, thank you.

Meatball in D.C.

Dear "Meatball in D.C.,"

Thank you very much for your Special Delivery letter and for your side of the coin. Also, please let me apologize if there was something in my reply to "Spaghetti in D.C.'s" letter that was off-target with you. As you know, "Meatball," I can only go by the information I have at hand.

I am happy to print your letter here, as you requested, to clear the air for you in D.C. Now that all of us have heard both testimonies, why not clear the slate, consider the case closed, and move forward in '84 to brighter, newer horizons with more refreshing, stimulating ideas.

With love, peace and new joy,
Diamond Lil

Dear Diamond Lil,

In the bars, I am another "piece of meat." At work, they see me as a person. I asked a pretty 18-year-old guy I work with to go to bed and he said "no." He was friendly, but is now polite, but distant.

I would feel no fault if I were fired for being gay. But, if he tells my boss and I am fired for making the offer, I could have avoided it and would feel stupid.

How do I make my feelings known to someone at work without making him paranoid or risking my job.

Doug

Dear Doug,

Years ago, when I was a very young lass and actually worked for such places as railroads, banks, etc., I, too, had a roving eye and a flirtatious grin. Luckily, my "cruisees" did not go to the boss.

Unfortunately, for some of us, "at work" REALLY means at work—not at play. Work and "play" just do not mix well at all. Even if the other person is interested, they have fear that it will get around that they "played." They don't want this information public on the job.

If you find yourself still unable to abide by the above, then, Doug, try working on getting to know someone pretty well before asking them out, so that they feel at ease with you. There are some people who feel intimidated when asked to go to bed directly. Work on diplomacy!

Love in the proper playground,
Diamond Lil

Personal to M.S.P. in Marietta:

In response to your letter which appeared in Cruise Vol. 8, #51, a Mr. Steve Johnson is trying to locate you. If you'll send me a self-addressed letter, I'll be happy to forward his message to you. Thanks. Diamond Lil.

CRUISING THE STARS
by MIKE VOSS

For Jan. 14th - Jan. 20th

CAPRICORN

(Dec. 22 - Jan. 20)

Friends and domestic concerns may interfere with a peaceful weekend you may have had planned. Surprises on the 15th mean extra dollars. On the 16th and 17th partnerships of all kinds improve career status. Marriage may be in store for some. Credit hassles on the 18th might ruin an otherwise delightful day. Stop worrying. Financial snags are only temporary. On the 19th others may see your bad side as you refuse to let go of controlling the lives of loved ones. In case you're not aware, in some circles that's known as manipulation. After the 20th love and money improve simultaneously.

AQUARIUS

(Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)

You're a mess.

PISCES

(Feb. 20 - March 20)

Career and domestic issues are at odds all weekend. Make up your mind on career direction then plan domestic concerns. Not vice versa. Sometimes you are so silly. On both the 16th and 17th the planets are in great aspects to start new romances. Don't miss these. Marrying a friend may just happen to some. Employment hassles can be yours on the 18th and 19th. Someone else in authority seems to be a jerk. Ignore them. Don't get your feelings hurt. After the 20th widening your circle of friends fattens your bank account.

ARIES

(March 21 - April 19)

Everything seems to be going better this week except your love life. I don't mean you don't have one but nothing appears very stable at the moment. Put the wedding dress away for awhile. Travel looks great this weekend but domestic concerns may shoot that idea right out of the sky. On the 16th and 17th status in both career and doemstic issues could improve drastically. Stay awake. Love and money may be a disappointing mix on the 18th and 19th. After the 20th change in career direction may involve some travel. Opportunities should be seized.

TAURUS

(April 20 - May 20)

Winning the battle but losing the war may be old hat to you. Why don't you try a new approach. Learn to yield. Loved ones may misinterpret your stubborness for selfishness on both the 18th and 19th. Everything else in your life looks pretty good. After the 20th doors may magically open in the communication field.

GEMINI

(May 21 - June 21)

Work load increases this week but then so does money. Enjoy a great success cycle. Love life may need some reevaluations.

CANCER

(June 22 - July 21)

Benefits this week come from fortunate partnerships. Count your many blessings at this time. On the 15th magnetic personality sparkles and brings in more goodies. On both the 16th and 17th career moves anticipated can finally be realized. Put yourself out front. Love aspects are wonderful on the 18th. Romances may sizzle for a change. On the 19th expcet some financial snags out of the blue. After the 20th professional men may enter your life. When it rains it pours. Marriage prospects may involve many. Keep score.

LEO

(July 22 - Aug. 21)

Get ready for some great job opportunities for a change. Career may take an upward swing after the 145th. Send out all resumes now. Anything in the arts or involving creativity at all is a sure bet. On the 16th and 17th domestic surprises may be pleasant and long waited for. The past may be the reason for tedious delays on both the 18th and 19th. Cover all bases. Don't get caught in stupid lies. After the 20th expect even more job opportunities.

VIRGO

(Aug. 22 - Sept. 22)

Love and domestic issues in for big changes this week. Romance and home run neck and neck. On the 16th and 17th friends prove to be great business assets. On the 18th and 19th the reverse may be true. Stay away from others if it involves money. Tempers could be the result. After the 20th love life picks up even more. It may be time to change partners.

LIBRA

(Sept. 23 - Oct. 22)

Juggling love and friendship issues may be less of a hassle this week. On both the 14th and 15th wild sex can be found en route anywhere. Great financial strides can be made on the 16th in all career matters. Don't be shy. Ask for what you're worth. Domestic concerns turn out in your favor if tended to on the 17th. On both the 18th and 19th friends, career and finances may have you emotionally and physically frazzled. In the eyes of others your status improves after the 20th and will continue to climb for awhile. Enjoy.

SCORPIO

(Oct. 23 - Nov. 21)

Communication skills should be sharpened this week for increasing career successes. On the 14th avoid domestic splurging. Loved ones may not be on the same wave length. The same holds true for the 15th. On the 16th love life takes a turn for the better. Legalities favored on the 17th. Don't be afraid to sign any outstanding contracts. You'll be the financial winner. Career pressures may be many on both the 18th and 19th. No time to show attitude, especially with women. You may get your face ripped off. Domestic assets increase after the 20th.

SAGITTARIUS

(Nov. 22 - Dec. 21)

Travel fever may be consuming you at the moment. Financial situation looks stable now. That always gives you wanderlust. Looking for greener pastures may get you into rougher financial waters a little further on down the road. Stay put and plan a nice vacation. No need to relocate. On the 16th snatch all business opportunities offered. All investments that day are sound. The same may be true on the 17th concerning domestic offers. Both the 18th and 19th can be bad days at 'Black Rock' for those of you with little patience. Domestic conditions improve after the 20th.

THE LISTING ATTIC

by DON TUCKER

Language changes frequently. Yesterday's "cool" becomes today's "total gross" (and custodial engineers used to be called janitors).

We are all somehow dated and catagorized by the colloquialisms and au courant expressions we use and adapt to our personal styles (now, isn't that peachy keen?!).

I am committed to the well being and personal social status of my readers. With that in mind I would like to pass on some of the more recent and up-to-date camp expressions being used on the streets where all language changes begin.

LADY HAMILTON: a watch queen

MUG WOMP: Anyone of either sex who enjoys taking off all their clothes, rolling around in india ink and dashing themselves against a white wall to leave an impression.

NUM-NUMS and WEE-WALLIES: Teenage foreplay.

GLANDER: Any cock over eleven inches in length and four inches in diameter (also known as a blessing).

ORUM: Any inexplicable body fluid.

ZAPTWIT: A gay person who sticks a length of chain up their ass and lets it drag the carpet so they don't experience static electrical shock running through motels.

DRAG NAP: A euphemism to indicate the death of a transvestite. As in: "You heard that Sheena DeVille took the drag nap, didn't you?"

PEKING: An oriental watch queen.

PETER MARSHALL: A security guard in a gay bar.

FAYE DUNAWAY: A gay mortuary.

WATERING HOLE: A gay bar that serves weak drinks.

AGNOSTIC: Anyone who believes that when you die you go to Bloomingdales.

PYROMANIAC: An older queen who takes out her teeth to give head.

SLIPPED DISCO: A dance bar that is on the way out.

DIU: A person who is arrested for driving in their underwear.

CHARITY BALL: Making it with a very old person.

SHUFFLE, BALL, CHANGE: Making it with a professional dancer on your coffee break.

MONDO CONDO: Anyone who uses a weather balloon instead of a rubber during sex.

BOOMERANG: A black eye on a lesbian who jumps rope without a bra.

EMPTY ARMS: A gay motel with vacancies.

So, I ask you. Why can't Americans learn their children how to speak?

KAREN MASON TO APPEAR AT PLUSH ROOM

One of New York's hottest singing sensations, Karen Mason, will be appearing in a special Atlanta engagement at the Hotel York's Plush Room Cabaret, January 17th through 29th.

Originally from Chicago, Ms. Mason moved to New York three years ago and have been attracting legions of admirers with show-stopping performances ever since.

She was featured in the off-Broadway musical "Matinee Kids" (written by her musical director, Brian Lasser), co-starred on Broadway in last season's "Play Me a Country Song" and, most recently, she co-starred in "Torch Song Trilogy," winner of the prestigious Tony Award for Best Play.

In addition to her own headlining appearances in such New York night clubs as Freddy's, Les Mouches and Don't Tell Mama, Ms. Mason has opened for such superstars as Peter Allen in Chicago and Phyllis Diller in New York. Needless to say, her reviews are always glowing. John S. Wison of the New York Times said, ". . . she has a voice and delivery that range form a warm, gentle intimacy to an all-stop out raucous belt."

Ms. Mason is accompanied by musical director, composer Brian Lasser at the piano. showtimes are Tuesday through Sunday at 9:30 with additional shows Friday and Saturday at 11:30. Admission is $7; for reservations, call 874-9200.

GAY TIME LINE ON WRFG

Join "Southern Gay Dreams" this Sunday, January 15th, for a continuing series on lesbian and gay history, starting with the Stonewall Riots of June 1969 in New York City. These segments will progress through recent history for several weeks and will conclude with a feature on the current AIDS Crisis.

Southern Gay Dreams is broadcast each Sunday from 8pm to 9pm on WRFG, 89.3 on your FM radio dial.

TURNING THE CORNER TURNING 30 IN THE GAY COMMUNITY

Turning 30 is often a significant transition in the lives of men—a time of thinking that we had made all our major decisions during our 20s, we often find ourselves setting new priorities and re-evaluating our goals.

Piedmont Psychological Center is pleased to announce "Turning the Corner," a ten-session support group experience for gay men, ages 28-34. In the group, we will focus on the developmental issues facing us during this passage. The group will define the agenda, but possible topics include defining personal relationships, developing friendship networks, career decisions and goals, using time creatively, and creating meaningful lives.

The group will meet weekly on Saturdays from 12 noon to 1:15pm, beginning January 28th, 1984. Fee for each session is $15; a commitment to attend at least eight sessions is required. Group leader will be Gary E. Piccola, Ph.D., licensed clinical psychologist in private practice.

For more information, or to arrange for a screening interview (no charge), please call Gary at 873-5510.

1983's BEST . . . AND WORST MOVIES

by Steve Warren

The year started dismally, but by late spring a combination of summer fun spectaculars and "art films" had brought back the joy of moviegoing. Since then there's been a fairly steady stream of decent entertainment; and if the year-end releases failed to live up to their own hype, most of them exceeded my limited expectations.

The best picture of the year was made by an Australian working in America for the first time, who seemed to know more about this country and its people than those of us who have lived here all our lives.

TEN BEST

1. Tender Mercies
2. Daniel
3. Terms of Endearment
4. Under Fire
5. The Grey Fox
6. The Draughtsman's Contract
7. The Right Stuff
8. The Big Chill
9. Yentl
10. Carmen

SECOND TEN
(alphabetically)

Abuse, Bad Boys, Betrayal, Blue Thunder, A Christmas Story, Heat and Dust, Return of Martin Guerre, Return of the Jedi, War Games, Zelig

If any of these haven't played in your area, get on somebody's case about it.

BEST DIRECTOR

Bruce Beresford, "Tender Mercies"
Runner-up: James L. Brooks, "Terms of Endearment"

BEST ACTOR

Robert Duvall, "Tender Mercies"
Runner-up: Eric Roberts, "Star 80"

WORST TEN
(alphabetically)

Amityville 3-D, Beyond the Limit, By Design, Danton, Jaws 3-D, Kruss, Liquid Sky, The Moon in the Gutter, Querelle, The Survivors

SPECIAL COMMENDATION

To Rainer Werner Fassbinder's "Berlin Alexanderplatz," even though I only had the endurance to watch the first three episodes; and
To the old movies that were some of this year's best: George Cukor's "A Star is Born" with Judy Garland, and the Hitchcock revivals, especially "Vertigo."

FIFTH OF JULY WINS CARBONELL AWARD

The Southe Florida Entertainment Writers Association has awarded its highly respected Carbonell Award for Best Production to Lanford Wilson's "Fifth of July," which was co-produced last season by the Alliance Theatre Company and the Coconut Grove Playhouse (formerly Players State Theatre) in Miami. The play ran at Coconut Grove during December, 1982, and at the Alliance Theater in Atlanta during January and February, 1983.

Also nominated for awards from the same production were Kent Stephens for Best Director, Eric Conger for Best Actor, Betty Leighton and Julia Murray for Best Actress, Kennety N. Kurtz for Best Set Design and Best Lgihting Design, and Ellis Tillman for Best Costumes.

The award was presented at the Eighth Annual Carbonell Awards Ceremonies on November 21st of last year in Jupiter, Florida. The SFEWA is a non-profit organization formed of theatre critics from the print and broadcast media in Dade, Broward and Palm Beach counties.

"Fifth of July" garnered more nominations than any other play.

GAY KEY WEST MAYOR TO SPEAK AT BUSINESS GUILD CEREMONY

Richard Heyman, an openly gay man who was recently elected mayor of Key West, Florida, has been confirmed as the guest speaker for the Atlanta Business and Professional Guild's (ABPG) second Installation and Awards Ceremony. Heyman, owner of an art gallery, is one of four openly gay mayors in the country.

Advance reservations for the ABPG banquet are required. Tickets for the "black tie optional" event cost $25 and include drinks, dinner, dessert, and coffee. Checks can be sent to the Atlanta Business and Professional Guild, Box 52785, Atlanta, Georgia 30305.

The festivities are scheduled to begin with an open bar cocktail hour at 6:30pm, January 22nd, 1984, at the Academy of Medicine, 875 West Peachtree Street at the corner of 7th. A 7:30 buffet dinner will be followed by the Installation and Awards ceremonies at 8:30. Susan Martin and Ward Hill will be installed as new officers of the organization.

NORRELL CORPORATION SPONSORS "CRIMES OF THE HEART"

It seem particularly appropriate that "Crimes of the Heart," one of the brightest new plays to appear on Broadway in several years, by Beth Henley, one of the brightest young playwrights now working in the U.S., should be sponsored by Norrell Corporation, one of the fastest growing companies in its field. With an annual growth rate of 35%, the Atlanta based company providing business services in temporary help, health care and computer software, is certainly one of the bright lights in a dynamic field which offers innovative tools for today's managers.

Guy W. Millner, Chairman and President of Norrell Corporation, stated, "This sponsorship gives us the opportunity to support the fine quality of artistic offering in Atlanta. The Norrell Corporation congratulates the Alliance Theatre Company on bringing 15 years of outstanding entertainment to our city."

"Crimes of the Heart," which is now playing at the Alliance through February 11th, is a Southern Gothic comedy about the reunion of three hilariously idiosyncratic siters in Hazelhurst, Mississippi. The play won both the Pulitzer Prize and the New York Drama Critics Circle Award in 1981. Said John Simon of New York magazine, "From time to time a play comes along that restores one's faith in out theater . . . This time it is "Crimes of the Heart," by Beth Henley, a new playwright of charm, warmth, style, unpretentiousness, and authentically individual vision."Although the theatre earns about 60% of its expenses, the remaining costs of artistic excellence must be made up through contributions and sponsorships. The Alliance Theatre Company/Atlanta Children's Theatre is delighted to welcome Norrell Corporation to its growing list of enthusiastic supporters in the business community, and wishes to thank Norrell for its generous support.
