ABOUT OUR COVER: The 1977 Miss Gay Atlanta Pageant was held on Thursday, June 2nd at The Sweet Gum Head. Seventeen talented contestants competed for the prizes and our cover this week shows Tisha Wallis, our Miss Gay Atlanta 1977 with Lisa King, last year's winner.

This was the 8th year for the Miss Gay Atlanta Pageant and as in the past it was produced and directed by Buddy Clark of Clark Productions. Buddy shared the emcee's chores with the lovely Veronica Gale Worth who is formerly from Atlanta but now lives in Charlotte. John Greenwell (aka Rachel Wells) and Satyn DeVille emceed the second half of the talent competition while special entertainment was provided by Mickey Day, Joannie Van Astor, The Lady Shawn, Roski Fernandez, Lisa King, Daisy Dalton and Vicki Lawrence.

All of the contestants were so good it is hard to know where to start in describing the beautiful outfits and the outstanding talent performances. Lakisha Lucky was Contestant Number One and although she wasn't a winner, she certainly looked good and went over great with the audience. Michealle Blackstock was Number 2, sponsored by Lily White. For talent she gave us a disco medley of "Honey Bee" and "Lady Bump". The always vivacious Terry Douglas sponsored by the Peregrine Motorcycle Club was number 3. Her talent consisted of a number from Car Wash and "The Shakefied Blues".

A newcomer to the drag scene, Sharon Taylor, was number 4. Sponsored by Gene and Gabe's Restaurant, Sharon was beautiful, especially doing her talent where she wore a white gown accented by a purple boa and sang "Easy".

Carlie Love sponsored by Shelly's Place was number 5. Her dancing to "Havana at The Tropicana" in black tights was just too much! Lavita Allen was outstanding in all categories, but she really brought the house down in talent when she came out as Dolly Parton and sang a country and western medley consisting of "Wabash Cannon Ball", "Your Love Is Lifting Me Higher" and "Ya'll Come". LaBianca, Number 8, sponsored by John Austin was lovely as was number 9, Boom Boom LaTour from Oleen's Lounge in Charlotte, North Carolina.

Number ten was the lovely Tissy Malone from The Locker Room Disco. She was followed by our own golden girl, Gilda Golden, sponsored by The Hollywood Hot. Gilda was splendid in talent wearing a clown suit and backed up by four dancers dressed as animals. She did "Animal Crackers in my Soup" and "Sam, You Made the Pants Too Long".

Vonda DeLaine, number 12 sponsored by CRUISE, was stunning in off the shoulders evening dress. She was also good in talent with her version of "Send in the Clowns". Tisha Wallis was number 13 and was sponsored by The Onyx Lounge. She did "The Music and the Mirror" from Chorus Line and looked beautiful in several outfits she made herself.

Lena Lamar, number 14, went over well doing "Just Let Me Walk" as her talent number. The unpredictable and zany Tiger Lil from The Onyx wore a striking blue evening gown and as usual was a knock-out in talent. She did "I Can't Do It Alone!" and "Mary Sunshine". Ebony DeVon from Charlotte's Scorpio Disco, number 16 and lovely Lanae' Hayes, number 17, rounded out the group.

After Roski Fernandez was presented the British Sterling Award as Entertainer of the Year it was time to announce all the winners. The winners in the various categories were: Evening Wear, Vonda DeLaine; Hair Style and Make-Up, Tisha Wallis; Sportswear, Gilda Golden; Poise and Femininity, Tissy Malone; and Talent, Tiger Lil.

The top five finalists included Gilda Golden, Vonda DeLaine, Tisha Wallis, Tiger Lil and LaVita Allen. Tisha was crowned as Miss Gay Atlanta, 1977; LaVita Allen was 1st Runner-Up and Vonda DeLaine was 2nd Runner-Up. It was a good

AROUND TOWN

Next year at the Atlanta Bar Awards Jim Nalley at The Onyx should receive a special award for coming up with some of the most unusual ideas for contests. In addition to the usual Mr. and Miss Onyx and his Mr. and Miss Gay Georgia Pageants, Jim has his Mr. Gay Atlanta Teenager Contest (Chicken of the Year) and his Comedian of the Year Contest, and now he has come up with two more.

This coming Wednesday, June 15th, it's the Mr. Sugar Daddy Contest, an event for men over forty. Categories include Sportswear, After Six Wear and Talent or Question. It's rumored that such well known Sugar Daddys as Mendel Rohm of Encore, Walt Adams and Frank Powell will be entering. The judges will include some of the winners of recent men's contest such as Mr. Onyx, Mr. Peach State and Mr. Locker Room. Jim first announced a cash prize but has since withdrawn it and now promises prizes (18 to 21) whatever that means. Anyway I'm sure it will be a lot of fun for everybody.

Then in July, the Onyx will have the Miss Fem and Miss Butch Contests,

Buddy Clark and Veronica Gale
Worth emcee at the Miss Gay
Atlanta Pageant

a couple of events for the women. What'll Jim think of next.

Elsewhere around town, The Sweet Gum Head will be having two special guests this coming week. This weekend, June 10th and 11th, it will be the popular Robie Landers from Chicago's House of Landers. Then on Tuesday and Wednesday, the 14th and 15th, they will have the talented Roxanne Russell from Florida. This will be Roxanne's first appearance in Atlanta since her concert at The Hollywood Hot last September. That was a great show and we're looking forward to seeing Roxanne here again.

Anita Bryant Wins in Florida

Anita Bryant and her bigoted, bible spouting "Save Our Children" organization have won the election to repeal the Dade County Florida Ordinance guaranteeing equal rights to jobs and housing to gays.

Despite polls which suggested that Dade County voters approved the antidiscrimination law by 62 to 38 per cent and a good turnout of voters, the gay rights ordinance was defeated two to one. A well financed campaign which used sensational and inflammatory ads on both TV, radio and in the newspapers apparently out weighted the favorable treatment the gay side of the question has received from the national media and many celebrities. The $200,000 or so raised by The Dade County Coalition was no match for the gigantic sums contributed by Anita and her bigoted baptist. Flushed with victory, Miss Bryant now says she plans to carry her campaign against gays to California, son in an intimate club setting. Often referred to as the New Queen of Soul, she is the only bad girl singing songs today...and she doesn't have to wear leather to prove it. Her gold-selling album "Caught Up" (the one where she talks about washing her boyfriend's funky drawers) catapulted her to international fame, and was followed by "Still Caught Up" which included "Loving Arms" and "Leftovers". Her new LP, "Lovingly Yours" includes her current 45 hit, "A Love of Your Own".

Before she resumes concert-hall performances again, her shows at Scarlett O'Hara in Underground Atlanta will provide the perfect setting to see and hear Millie up close, good and loud, and badder than ever. Reservations are recommended but not mandatory. Telephone 524-8011. Chances are this may be the "Don't Miss" show of the summer. Be prepared to have your mind blown.
