GOTHAM MAKES THE COVER OF CRUISE! (It ain't Rolling Stone, but it ain't bad...)

Those three zanys on our cover this week are none other than GOTHAM, the exciting and internationally acclaimed song, dance and comedy group. Formed just four years ago, GOTHAM has taken stages across the country by storm.

Gary Herb, Michael Pace and David McDaniel, the three supremely talented young men who are GOTHAM, have appeared at Circle In The Square with Joanne Woodward and Paul Newman in New York, Studio One in L.A., The Cellar Door and the Kennedy Center For The Performing Arts in Washington, DC, The Bottom Line in N.Y., and The Ira Gershwin Benefit with Bette Midler at Lincoln Center. CRUISE AROUND TOWN

Sure hope Everybody has recovered from their Halloween Hangover. The American Psychiatric Association should put that on their list of disorders. Anyway things are slowing down a little this week; but that doesn't mean there's nothing going on.

The big event is the arrival of the group Gotham at the Magic Garden. Speaking of that bar, have you noticed the enclosure with the small tropical garden inside. Recently installed by Ruffled Feathers, a shop specializing in exotic birds. They are located in Ansley Mall at the Ides of March.

The only contest this week (whew!) is at the Onyx. If you remember the Miss Newcomer contest they had several weeks ago, then you won't this counterpart for the men. The Mr. Newcomer of the Year contest will be held at the bar on Monday November 8th.

While we are on the subject of contests, I recently had the pleasure of attending the Miss Zodiac contest in Daytona Beach. Phyllis Killer was the M.C. She did a job taht should make us proud to call her our own. My apologies for not mentioning her before.

Watch out November 30th. Jack Wrangler, star of several Hand in Hand films and the hottest thing in the gay porno world today. He will be making an appearance for two shows at the Sweet Gum Head and will emcee the Mr. Down Under contest the next night.

A Few Quick Notes: Our Place is having regular shows in their on Friday and Saturday. The Cove is still having their beer bust. Wear your t-shirts and levi's and drink draft all night for $.25 a hit. Lene Hayes will be staging another one of her Elaborate stage productions on Monday, November 21st at the Georgian Terrace. The show will feature Lene, Gail Allen, Dana Lamour, and Vicki Lawrence.

lately!) They can also be heard doing back-up vocals on Bette Midler's album, "Songs For The New Depression."

And what's good enough for Bette Midler, Merv Griffin and Lincoln Center is good enough for THE MAGIC GARDEN in Atlanta!

See the CenterFold ad in this week's issue for more information as to when and where you can catch up with GOTHAM. It's a lively, sophisticated, captivating, funny show. After all, it was CUE Magazine that said: "The combination on their music, their talents, their humor and their enthusiasm is devastating."

Unfortunately, GOTHAM will only be in town for a week, so make your reservations right away so you won't be disappointed... (MGJ)

Casablanca Record and Film WorksTM

Dear Dancers . . .

Since my arrival to the city of Atlanta on November 28, 1976, from Florida, the welcome that has been made to me, by you, has surpassed all levels of my imagination.

The appreciation and love that you, my dancers, have extended has brought forth such a gratifying feeling of loyalty that I can only thank you in the best possible way I know. To bring you such an exciting and fun-filled evening that it will surely be one of the greatest evenings that will come your way in a long time.

On Monday, November 14, 1977 Casablanca Records and Filmworks and I have put together an evening for you that will surely sweep all disco dancers off their feet. On hand will be Marc "Paul" Simon, vice president of Casablanca to introduce you to one of the hottest new talents to sign with the Casablanca Records . . . such as DONNA SOMMERS, GEORGIO, VILLAGE PEOPLE, LOVE AND KISSES and ROBERTA KELLEY . . . to name a few. This NEW and SURE to be "ON TOP" lady is MISS PATTI BROOKS, whose music has been putting all of you on the dance floors in the past few weeks with her fantastic new pop college medley, featuring Popcorn, Black is Black, and Na Na Hey Hey Kiss Him Good-bye. Not only will this sparky new lady be there to perform for you as well as sign autographs, but more highlights will include the premiere of our new and fabulous light show. A champagne toast will be made in honor of Casablanca and immediately following a buffet. Also highlighted will be a $200 dance contest. Judges will be Miss Patti Brooks, Marc "Paul" Simon, Paul Paulos of Zylites, and Dale La Pedus of Music City.

On hand will also be lots of free Casablanca materials including their latest hit records. The employees of Encore will be costumed in a Middle East motif to enhance the evening as well as pay tribute to the great Casablanca emblem and tradition. There will also be a guest appearance by Atlanta's own "Donna Somer" Miss Tissie Malone.

To offer you any less would be unfair, to offer you more, un-real. So come and celebrate this great event you won't forget! An evening in perpetual motion.

With love . . . your disc jockey
