Michael Josie, Blueboy Man of the Year Preliminary Winner and friend Tony Raffia were on hand for the opening of Numbers' new front lounge, Tili Dawn.

Garden. The game room has been moved to the former Cabaret Room and is always busy. Shows are being presented every Sunday in the disco at 12:30 and 4:30 am. Last Sunday The Diamond Girl Revue appeared and presented such great stars as Lisa King, Micky Day, Belle Kincaid and Brown Sugar, along with the regular cast. That show was so popular that it will be there again this Sunday. On Sunday, October 7, a special show called "Dolly" which will feature the top entertainers in the city will be presented. Sunday is a day you don't want to miss at Numbers - free shows, 75¢ drinks from 2 pm til 11 pm, and a free buffet at 7 pm.

Numbers also has two of Atlanta's favorite disc jockeys, Ricki Merewether and Jorge Martinez spinning nightly and the most handsome and friendliest staff in town. All of the above are making Numbers the most popular club in the city. If you haven't been there lately, be sure to stop by and check it out.

SWEET GUM HEAD MARCH BENEFIT

The Sweet Gum Head was the scene for a gay glitter gala "Baubles, Bangles and Beads" Monday night, September 17th. Over 150 revelers were entertained by premier Atlanta drag queens like Roski Fernandez and Miss Gay America Hot Chocolate, singing and dancing their utmost for the National March on Washington for Lesbian and Gay Rights. Genially emceed by Cherry from the Club Sheba, the Georgia Alliance for the National March sponsored the flamboyant revue and garnered over $1,000 from patrons' generous contributions, all going to finance local March organizing in Atlanta.

The two largest donations - $200 each - came from the activist mother of the

ATLANTA GAY CENTER.

HELP LINE 892-0661 6-11 PM.

"Baubles, Bangles and Beads" coordinator, Margo George, and from the public-spirited owner of Bulldog and Company Jerry Pyszka, whose altruism in the gay community is becoming legendary. The owners of Woody's Sandwich Shop also warmly contributed $50. Money was generated through a People's Auction too, where the audience bids by throwing quarters on the stage and the last coin tossed wins the item. Baked goods, "I'll Be There" National March T-Shirts, and tickets to Lesbian singer Teresa Trull's concert September 22nd were among the prizes awarded in the People's Auction.

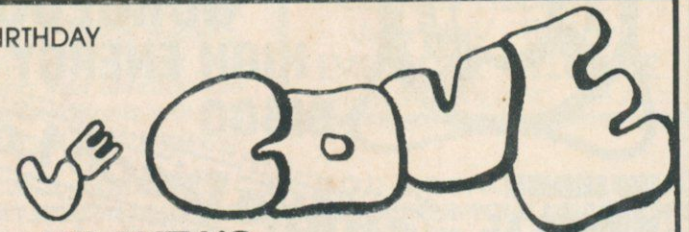

The March Media Coordinator Dave Bryant produced an original skit "The Really Reggie Show," a satirical swipe at TV talk shows and militant gay politics. Co-starring Bob Walters as the "angry young activist" Buster Krogan of the Straight Liberation Front, "media hot shot host" Reggie gleefully patronized the dour Buster at every opportunity, constantly rubbing in that gay is normal and straight is strange in an exhilarating role reversal. As well as writing and directing the vignette, Dave performed as the smugly outrageous queen Reggie.

The stage also saw Carol Koziera's ribald turn as "Lily Tomlin Live" and Hugh Beasley's lovely vocalizing in a selection of ballads.

Watch for the March's Little Five Points Pub benefit Monday, October 1st, when one of Atlanta's most popular singers, Fonda Feingold, will entertain with Stephanie Pettis. This event will begin at 7:30 with a $2 donation and will star folksinger John Simpson and several other gifted artists.

YOU NEED TO MAKE YOUR RESERVATIONS IMMEDIATELY TO ATTEND THE MARCH ON WASHINGTON TO GUARANTEE SPACE ON THE BUSES. MAKE YOUR RESERVATIONS NO LATER THAN SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 30TH. CALL 455-1007, 586-0063 or 873-4512.

Washington, D.C. — Senator Paul Tsongas (D-Mass.) has sent a "Dear Colleague" letter to all members of the Senate announcing his intention to introduce legislation to prohibit employment discrimination against lesbians and gay men. The purpose of the letter is to seek co-sponsors for the proposed legislation.

Steve Endean, Lobby Executive Director of the National Constituent Lobby, urges all gays and lesbians to attend the March and participate in The Constituent Lobbying Day, October 15th.

Lobby Executive Director Steve Endean expressed extreme pleasure at this development. "This marks the first time in history that a lesbian/gay civil rights bill will be in the United States Senate. Because of the nature of the Senate, where each member represents an entire state, introduction of a Senate Gay Rights Bill should provide a major assist in making this a truly national issue." The Gay Rights National Lobby has played a key role in securing this action and will continue to work closely with Senator Tsongas in securing additional sponsors and supporters. The timing of actual introduction of the Senate Bill has not yet been determined, but it is hoped that it will be introduced before the conclusion of this legislative year.

Endean also suggested that introduction of the first Senate Gay Rights Bill in history gives the lesbian/gay community good reason to attend the March on Washington for Lesbian and Gay Rights on October 14th and the National Constituent Lobbying Day on Monday, October 15th. "Until Senators and Congresspeople know that they have gay constituents who are affected by this legislation, their support will be limited. The Constituent Lobbying Day, the day after the March, is an excellent opportunity to meet directly with their Senators and Congresspeople to explain their views." For those persons that will not be attending the March or cannot stay for the Constituent Lobbying Day, the Lobby strongly urges supporters of lesbian/gay rights to write to their Senators at Senate Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20510. Those that are unsure of who their Senators are may contact the Gay Rights National Lobby at 1606 17th St. N.W., Washing-

WIGGINS-LESTER, DEVEAUX LEAD BUSINESS POLL — SALES TAX GETS CONDITIONAL YES

Elaine Wiggins-Lester and Clint Deveaux were the favorite candidates of the majority of business and professional people polled by the Atlanta Business and Professional Guild. The Sales Tax referendum got a conditional yes with over forty percent saying they would make up their mind in the voting booth.

Elaine Wiggins-Lester is running for the city council seat vacated by Panke Bradley. While Ms. Lester now resides on Alston Drive in DeKalb County, she is a former mid-towner. She is an urban planner and has been active in the League of Women Voters and the Women's Chamber of Commerce. Ms. Lester who has recently married, is perhaps better known in the gay community as Ms. Wiggins. While a resident of midtown she lent her support to numerous gay oriented fund raising and political activities. She is a strong advocate of human rights and is as interested as many gay leaders are in ongoing training programs for the police department.

Elaine was delighted when she learned that she had topped the Business guild poll. Having attended the Atlanta Gay Center Fair the day before at the Cabana she stated that she felt she had good name-recognition within the gay community and felt that she had the ability to stay in touch and represent the interests of the city. Ms. Lester is running for At-Large Post 15. All registered voters in the City of Atlanta may cast a vote for this post.

Clint Deveaux is running for the State House seat vacated by Gerald Horton. Deveaux was the overwhelming choice of the Business and Professional people polled by the Guild. Deveaux is currently president of the American Civil Liberties Union of Georgia and has been a long time supporter of gay rights legislation. As president of the ACLU Georgia he was instrumental in involving gay people in the ACLU and on its Board of Directors. Deveaux is also running for an at large position (House District 43 Post 2). All registered voters in Fulton County (only) will be eligible to cast a vote in this race.

The proposed one cent increase in sales tax for the city of Atlanta got a very iffy yes from a majority of those polled. Almost 80% of the people polled had not made a firm decision on the issue. Of the Business and Professional people polled 10 percent voted yes, 45 percent would vote yes if property taxes would be rolled back, 35 percent said they would vote yes if they thought property taxes would be rolled back but said they did not believe that City Council would actually roll them back and 10 percent voted no.

Several lounge owners in opposing the sales tax noted that they were already remitting 7¢ on each dollar of sales and the addition of another 1 percent would ultimately force another rise in drink prices. After the poll was completed we contacted the Atlanta Bureau of Budget and Planning which informed us that state law prohibited the collection of taxes on liquor by the drink in excess of the current 7% level. If the sales tax passes cocktails will be exempt from the new tax.

The Atlanta Business and Professional Guild is not endorsing any candidates in the October 2nd election nor is it urging your support or opposition to the Sales Tax referendum. We do however, urge you to participate in the election process. The City Council race is an at large position and all registered voters in the City of Atlanta are eligible to vote. The State House of Representatives and the Sales Tax Referendum will be decided by the voters of Fulton County and the City of Atlanta except for those Atlantans that live in the portion of the city that extends into DeKalb County. We urge you to make your views known and vote on October 2nd!

FONDA FEINGOLD TO APPEAR

One of Atlanta's best-known and most popular singers, Fonda Feingold, will headline a benefit at the Little Five Points Pub Monday, October 1st, at 7:30 pm. Ms. Feingold and her partner Stephanie Pettis are entertaining on behalf of the Georgia Alliance for the National March on Washington for Lesbian and Gay Rights. Folksinger John Simpson, impressionist Carol Koziera in "Lily Tomlin Live", and Dave Bryant presenting the spoof "The Really Reggie Show" will be among several other entertainers donating their talents Monday evening. A donation of $2 is requested for the show. Wine, beer and snacks will be available for the munchies.

Dear Editor,

The proposed 1% sales tax increase will benefit large property owners. The funding of the pro-sales tax campaign by Georgia Power, Southern Bell, Majik Market, and other large companies is a clear indication of who will be the major benefactors from this tax.

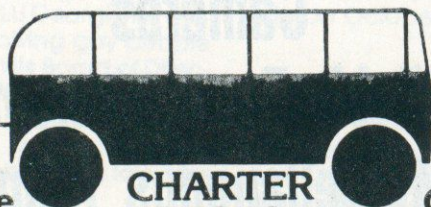

Lt. Governor Zell Miller has proposed a state-wide 1% sales tax increase. Under his plan both food and drugs would be exempt from all sales tax. If the voters of Fulton County pass the County-wide increase on October 2nd, Miller's state-wide plan will virtually be a dead issue.

No matter where or how a tax is levied, the average citizen ends up paying it whether it is in increased rent or an increase in the price of products and services. If the County-wide sales tax increase passes on October 2nd and property taxes are rolled back, I doubt seriously that any ones rent will be reduced or the price of one single item at any Magik Market will reflect the thousands of dollars that company will save in decreased property taxes. The price of everything you buy, including the over priced rolling papers at the Majik Market will increase 1%. Your salary will not go up 1% but inflation will increase the cost of everything you buy and the real value of that 1% sales tax. I may be able to cut down on non-essentials as my buying power decreases but I will need to buy food if I intend to go on reading CRUISE and occasionally trying to cruise my self. Eliminating the tax on food WILL benefit me and Miller's plan is the only one that seems to have me in mind. I'm voting no to a sales tax increase that doesn't eliminate the tax on food and drugs. I urge you to do the same.

CRUISE MARKET PLACE

Gay people in Atlanta have been blessed with an abundance of friendly and convenient places to have their hair cared for and so location often plays a decisive factor in the selection of a salon. Now those of us (ah-hem) in the Buford Highway area have a salon and stylist out in our neck of the woods.

James Lambert, manager of Hoyt's, a unisex salon, hopes that his location at 2924 Clairmont Road in the September Days complex will give him a positive point in getting gay people to come in and see him.

A full service salon, James features both Redken and Jhirmack products for the utmost in quality hair-care. One of James' specialties, by the way, is the macho-man curly perm.

Hoyt's in September Days (Bldg. I-1104) is currently a one-man shop but James is looking for someone (male or female) to come in with him on a part-time basis and then work into a full-time position.

Located on Clairmont Road just off I-85, Hoyt's is open from 10 til 6, Monday through Friday and 9 to 5 on Saturdays with late appointments available by phoning 634-9113. So if you've been looking for someplace a little closer to have your hair done, check out Hoyt's in September Days. And if you take in their ad from our Market Place section, you'll get $1.00 off on your cut.

The Foods and Wines of Warpwood

by Bernice Cross Tarbuns
(Of the Decatur by-the-sea Tarbuns)

According to the dictionary CAMP is AN AFFECTATION OR APPRECIATION OF MANNERS AND TASTE COMMONLY THOUGHT TO BE OUTLANDISH, VULGAR OR BANAL. BANALITY OR ARTIFICIALITY, WHEN APPRECIATED FOR ITS HUMOR. TO ACT IN AN OUTLANDISH OR EFFEMINATE MANNER. (Origin Unknown.) What do those American Heritage Dictionary people mean—"Origin unknown!?" Every gay person knows that CAMP was started by Miss Thing in 3 Million B.C. Or as she used to say, "Just after the seas receded from the Piedmont."

Miss Thing was a cave man and everyone knows that cave men had no sense of humor. She lived with her tribe, relatives and friends in Cave 86 just outside what is known as Lourdes France. It was a desolate and hard life. Roasting in the summer, freezing in the winter and life was a constant battle for food and avoiding being eaten as a Mastadon's supper or a Teradactyl's afternoon snack.

Miss Thing was indistinguishable from all the other cave people. Morose, brooding and depressed, and like all the other cave people, had never laughed. One day while trying to reach a freed animal which Miss Thing had earmarked as lunch a large clump of curlycue moss fell on her head and when she leaned over a clear brook to get a drink of water she saw her reflection. It was too divine for words! Miss Thing didn't realize it at the time but it was the first Camp thing ever done and the first drag wig in history. Miss Thing laughed so hard she had to sit down on a nearby rock.

The sound of Miss Thing's laughter brought the other members of Cave 86. They thought from the sound of her laugh that her life was in grave peril, but when they saw Miss Thing in a drag wig they laughed for the first time, too.

Naturally, the details of that day are sketchy because we are entirely dependent on word of mouth, but some small details are verifiable and have been traced back to that historical day.

In those days, Cave 86 was attacked every few days by other caves who were in search of food and well made weapons. Enemies often carried off young virgins for their wives. Miss Thing decided that what they needed was a song to distinguish them from all the other caves — something they could sing every morning when they got up. So she wrote, "Cave 86 is the best Cave of all, and fuck all the other Caves!" It was extremely crude, utterly lacking in scan and rhyme but it had a lovely tune and she made up a dance to go with it. Soon, everyone was singing and humming their new song while they hunted, fished, maimed and plundered. And Cave 86 women (and some men) were often saved from being dragged into the forest by their hair because they were wearing a moss wig. Miss Thing could do wonders with hers and often changed the style to suit her mood.

Because of Miss Thing's little song, peace came to the Piltownese people of Lourdes. Other caves would sneak outside Cave 86 every morning just to hear the song and see the marvelous dance that went with it. In fact, they started "cruising" Cave 86, and this suited Miss Thing just fine! She invented crepe paper, chicken wire and colored Kleenex and decorated like mad. The stalactites became ice crystals and the Cave 86 wall was festooned with a huge rainbow.

Miss Thing's contributions were many and we owe much to her vivid imagination. In those days, when a hunter did something that was particularly brave he was presented with the head of a wild boar. It was known as giving head. Miss Thing found a more grateful way to reward hunters even if it was a bit noisy.

Miss Thing began the practice of using parsley and paprika in cooking. She also invented desserts.

Liquor or mead was already in fairly wide use at the time, but Miss Thing discovered aperitifs and after dinner drinks. Miss Thing also invented the glory hole but after several hunks were eaten the practice was dropped.

The following is a list of actual "Cave man words" and their meanings as introduced and practiced by Miss Thing.
