the FIRST word

How I fought with my lover and came to sit in the CRUISE office at three in the morning with a six pack of Stroh Light. How I was so depressed that my nose kept putting my cigarettes out. How I felt so dejected—so pitifully sorry for myself that I needed someone to talk with.

But don't you just know it—there's always a candle burning when you need it. Have you ever glanced at all the organizations in Atlanta in the Regional CRUISE Guide? Aren't we so very lucky to have so many little groups to help us when help is what we need?

The following notes were written by a drunk (I confess) and they are not complete nor are they word for word, but if you insist on accuracy, the phone numbers are included. Check it out.

COMMUNITY NEWS

P's BENEFIT AT THE ANSWER

Mickey Day with help from P's Hilton Burts introduced the many stars at the P's Benefit Show at the Answer. Monday night, January 12th was a fast paced affair with performers from many other clubs throughout the city donating their talent to raise money for P's.

Some of the outstanding talent included Danny Windsor and the Striesand look-alike act-alike Dawn Dupree.

CONFERENCE ROOM GRAND OPENING

January 7th was the grand opening of the Conference Room (formerly Why Not.) A good crowd attended for the affair and as their policy has it, they will continue the original Falcon play-off party every game, and revival hour will continue every Sunday at 6 p.m. at the piano bar.

FORMATION OF OBLATES SAINT BENEDICT

Sunday, January 18th, Marlo Salvatore will be taking his Solemn Profession of Promises. The Reverend "Papa" John Hose will be the main celebrant. This will mark the beginning of the official stand of George Meader will take Simple Profession and will be made Director of New Membership. Tom Teaver will present pieces on the organ and Carolyn Mobley will present guitar selections.

The affair will be held at the MCC church, 800 N. Highland at 2 p.m. Everyone is invited to attend and there will be a reception afterward. For further information, you may contact Mario Salvatore at 325-8684.

COLONY SQUARE HEALTH CLUB

Although the Colony Square Health Club has been in operation for many years, it has only recently (since spring) under gone a management change which has resulted in a new marketing concept. The change has resulted in a new policy of, "What service do you want?" In other words, they are dedicated in listening to thier customers. If you desire a certain area of your body to be firmed, the instructor is a genius at isolating that area and designing a program to fulfill the ultimate goal in the least time possible.

This co-ed club offers features (to name but a few) such as a full sized gym, steam room, sauna, tennis court, summer pool, and a racket ball court underway. Call for info. 881-1632.

TAR HEEL NEWS

Kimbel Punkerson won the Mr. Power Co. Contest for Jan. Kim will now be part of the hot men bidding for the Mr. Winston-Salem crown that will take one lucky winner to Atlanta for the Mr. Gay America Contest In September.

Francesca Wakely, Miss Tennessee will be appearing at the Power Co. In Winston-Salem, Jan. 24th and 25th.

Stepping into CLASS

by Ken LaRue

As you know so very-very well, dear, I have never been so degenerate as to thrive on X-rated films as so many poor queens. Have you ever noticed those awful book stores? They are vulturous places with the very lowest of creatures lurking about in the dark and wouldn't you suppose that once they found a playmate they would simply skip away to other chores? Not so, dear Viola. I have researched well and it is this way...Perhaps there are some lonely souls who achieve their needs and go about thier way, but I have seen true luses who slosh from their activity and still they carry on—standing here and standing there, watching who goes into where, and who is alone watching what. Why is this? Are their needs so insatiable or has the whole idea of such impersonal sex become a fashion? I am indeed perplexed.

I approached one such lush and inquired as to his background, thinking that perhaps he was stifled as a child and brought up with an unhealthy attitude of what it means to be gay. I thought perhaps he might be acting out the roll he thinks society has assigned him---depraved, you know. At any rate, it is not difficult to quote his exact words for they were said rather hastily. This is what he said, Viola, "My God what a tired piece." Tired? I had slept nearly all day.

Anyway, love, I sensed hostility in that he clenched his fist. But you know, I'm quite keen at judging character and considered it merely an idle bluff.

When I asked why this creature had chosen such a disgusting loathsome way of life, so immoral and filth ridden, he merely glared at me. So rude, these people—not so much as a spit of an answer. However he did prove that the hand is quicker than the eye—he body slammed me into number seven before I could even bat my Coty lashes.

I simply do not understand these book-store people, sugar, and I dare say I never will. God knows I try—nearly every afternoon.

ALTERNATIVES

Movies

PLANET OF DINOSAURS now showing at Westgate Triple, Suburban Plaza Twin, Belmont Theatre, Village Twin and a few DI's. "Trapped in a nightmare world of prehistoric monsters." My exact words at the last party I attended.

THE ARISTOCATS—see how desperate I am for alternatives? It's a re-release of a 1970 Disney feature-length cartoon. Now showing at (who cares?)

NIGHTHAWKS is a low key film about gay life in London. The critics say it could possibly be the best film about homosexuality ever made. A double feature at Rhodes with the second movie THE CONSEQUENCE, a German film about a convicted sex offender who finds love with a young man he meets in prison. Touching.

Concerts

STYX will appear at the Omni Jan. 28th at 8 p.m. Expect some good vocal harmony and a flashy stage show and you won't be disappointed. Tickets are $9.50 and $10.50 at SEATS and Omni box.

REO SPEEDWAGON will roll into the Omni for one show only. February 1st at 8 p.m.

Exhibits

Dekalb North Art Center—Dekalb Library, Dunwoody Branch. Opens noon til 4 p.m. through the month of January. An exhibit of works by instructors at the DNAC. Free.

Collanwolde Gallery, 980 Briarcliff Road. Contemporary sculptural ceramics by Jeff Back. 9 a.m. - 9 p.m. Mon. thru Thurs. and 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturdays through January 30th.
