"PRIDE WORLDWIDE" 2002

Greetings one and all:

I want to welcome you to this year's Pride activities. It is our sincere hope that the events of this year serve as a reminder that Gay Pride is an attitude we should strive to have all the time. As Americans, we have the right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Sounds corny right? However, this is the cornerstone for our attitudes of being proud and free to be who we are. So, as you have fun this week, stop and take the time to reflect on how good it is to be able to have such events. As always, continue to be all you can be and do it with pride and dignity!

I personally want to thank all the officers, committee chairs and titleholders for making this year a success. My thanks to all the bars and bar staff for making our fund raising events so fun and productive. My special thanks go out to all the performers who gave of their time and talents to assure we had the monies for this week's events. If it were not for the devoted work of volunteers Gay Pride Week would not happen. It has been said it takes a village to raise a child. Well, it takes a united community to make Gay Pride Week a success.

I am truly thankful that I have been your President this year. I want my partner, Dianne, to know how much she has contributed to this year's Pride Events. She has a spirit that strives to make each new year better than the last. I can only hope that more of us capture that passion.

Have a great time this week and remember that Internationally we are all celebrating "Pride Worldwide". Have fun, play safe and be good to one another.

GENDER

1: n. the behavioral, cultural, or psychological traits typically associated with one sex

...perhaps they meant to say "stereotypically associated."

At Angel of Hope, we have a very strong imperative on typical gender roles: to hell with 'em.

Be who you are. And come see for yourself what a radically inclusive, justice oriented, fiercely loving church is like.

GENUINE

1: a. actually having the reputed character
2: a. free from hypocrisy or pretense

At Angel of Hope Christian Church, what you see is what you get. And what you see may surprise you.

Come see for yourself what a radically inclusive, justice oriented, fiercely loving church is like.
