AN OPEN LETTER

Dear Friends:

There was a time in New York when sumptuous, un-hurried dining was a way of life. Those were the days when you weren't intimidated by the waiters -- in fact they called you "Sir" -- and you were free to dine at leisure. And, at times, the food was orgasmic...well, almost! The drinks were nigh on lethal and you felt you weren't being exploited, you were being TREATED!

It is my pleasure to bring you back to those glorious days. SIRO'S, the restaurant of distinction, which has been garnering bravos for twenty years, is now GAY-owned. And I'm the owner! My promise to you is that the same fine service, the same magnificent cuisine, the same powerful drinks, will continue to be features of SIRO'S. The new twist is that YOUR tastes and fancies will be foremost in our minds...

You may have had a lot of idle promises bandied at you in the past. All I can say is TRY US. We promise you a unique experience. Not necessarily a NEW experience -- but an experience in dining that is hard to come by in these impersonal times!

Sincerely,

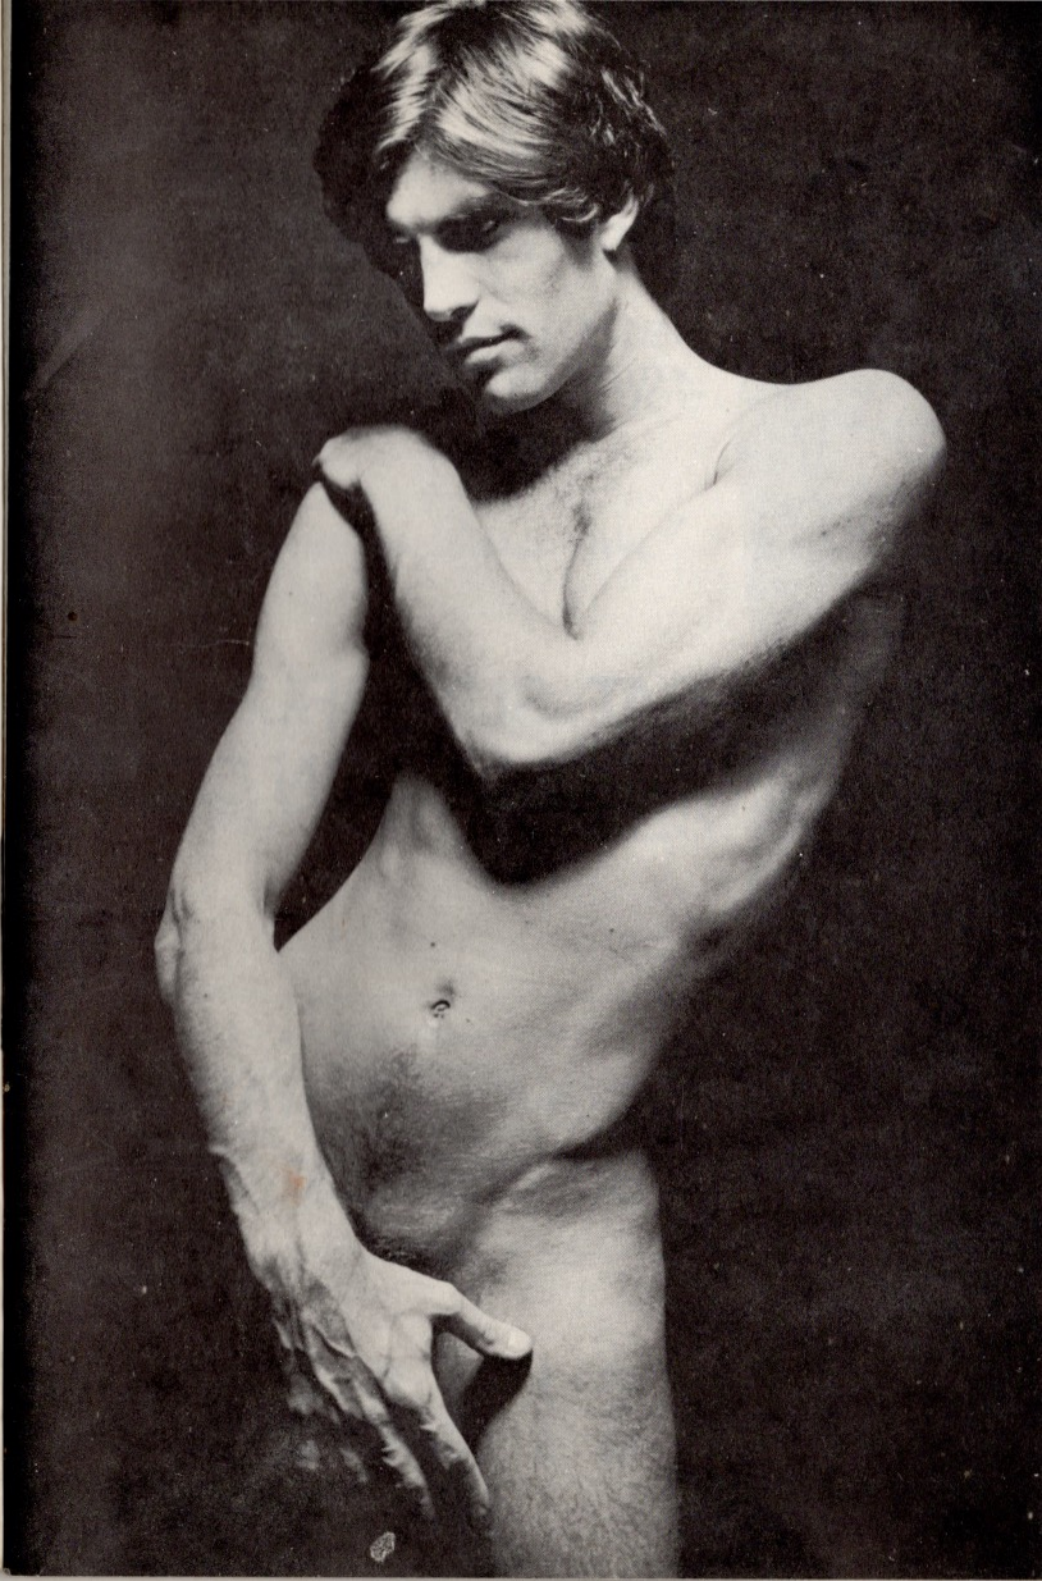

Allen

MICHAEL'S THING is proud to present an exhibition of beautiful photographs by the distinguished photographer,

ROY BLAKEY

Our staff and our advertisers invite you to pause a moment, and reflect on these words by William Shakespeare.....

Photographer Roy Blakey identifies with Marco Polo. He pictures himself an adventurer, a discoverer, a pioneer. Not without reason. He's ridden elephants in India, explored the Brazilian jungle, worked in Spanish bull rings, slept in Japanese temples, met the King of Siam, and was arrested in the Soviet Union.

Blakey's most recent adventures are taking place in his New York studio, where he is pioneering in the field of serious male nude photography. He feels that he is an explorer in a vast, uncharted, and most exciting area.
