YOU KNOW WHAT?

NEWS NEWS NEWS

Well folks, it's time to stand up and be counted once again. A march from city hall to the police station will take place Tuesday July 22, at 7 pm. Please make an effort to attend. Also as reported to Midnight Rider; Austin, San Antonio, Dallas, and New Orleans are sending buses of people to attend this march.

On July 25th Midnight Rider will expand to Dallas, Austin, Ft. Worth, and the whole state of Louisiana.

U.S. Immigration officials have reported that a large number of Cubans entering the U.S. are gay single males. Welcome to the U.S.

And a newsletter was born on Monday July 14th. The Montrose Sports Association started printing a weekly newsletter, which is free to their members. Way to go M.S.A.

The Mustang band goes to Dallas this week to start their tour. Good Luck guys.

Our Place has a new band starting this week. Kaye's always doing something new.

Frank's Gay Country Cloggers attended the 2nd Annual Chaucer Birthday Party in Memorial Park. Hosted by Kim Delane, Trish McEver, Kay Simpson, Phebe Shepherd, Bert Ludwig and Danny Aberhaum. The Cloggers were victorious in a volleyball game against the Chaucers. The beer they furnished helped everyone enjoy the afternoon.

P.S. Someone enjoyed it so much they left 1 blanket, 2 lounge chairs and 1 pair of thongs. Call Phebe.

THE GREATER SEWERS OF HOUSTON

by Eureka Hoover-Kirby

Howdy folks! Stella and Wayne just got back from their vacation. They went to Ft. Lauderdale and Miami. Stella was seen on the beach wearing a black Pucci bikini with matching black canvas hat. His thongs were from Woolco.

Wayne was seen lounging on a smart chaise lounge by the Atlantic and kept yelling for gefilte fish.

The Brazos is really a festive place with all that air conditioning on the dance floor. Also with all those hot men on the dance floor.

Bill, Sophie, Dayle and Mike went to the Circus and had a swell time. Sophie told me that she would be at the BRB later, but never showed up.

Saw some good bowling last Monday night. Phil Blakeway, Doug Riddle and Rich Corder did away with us.

Friday night, we loaded the tuna can up and went to Dallas. We get there about 3:30 a.m. and checked into the motel and went to sleep. We got up and drove over to the Bell Pepper for breakfast and they were closed. So, we went back to the motel restaurant.

After lunch we went shopping and bought some new outfits for Saturday nite. Well, after shopping, we decided to go to the Crew's Inn. There was a real nice crowd there and I met a real nice guy. His name is Duane and is really a good looking hunk.

When I got home from Dallas, George and Kitty had given me some beautiful flowers.

Our magazine artist John is in the hospital and will be released before you read this. He had surgery and so far is doing fine.

This coming weekend I will be in New Orleans. Take care and I love you all.

BARNEY'S WORLD

by Barney O'Reilly

July is a month for surprises. It has given the world American Independence and Barney's sexuality. It is the new year for bureaucrats—when they begin spending next year's money (surprise—this year's is long gone). Some people blame July's legacy on the heat.

Would it were so simple, but it's cold business—real cold turkey—that Barney has the privilege and duty to announce. It's the recipient of his annual, uncoveted Elmer Gantry Award for thye year's outstanding achievement in hypocrisy. This is the 4th award. regrettably, we've had but one winner thus far, and—surprise, surprise—it happened again. What could beat the divorce?

You know Barney's impartial. You trust him. You know he tries. You know he gave enery shadow of a doubt to the runner-up (he even fudged in their favor a little), but no dice.

Until the divorce, Moral Monopoly held the lead. There is some consolation for MM's promoters, however. MM did receive an award last year—somebody else's "asshole of the month" award, to which Barney says, "You couldn't have made a better choice that month."

As most of Barney's readers know, the Moral Monopoly's speciality is advising humankind of God's will in current events. And to listen to MM it seems that they alone among all the human race know it. And we must surmise from MM's obsession with our existence that God has gays on His mind more than ever before. (Barney has a rebuttal planned for your recent "Sodom-and-GomorraH" lunacy, MM.)

Barney knows God loves him or He wouldn't have made Barney. And God made Barney gay, so He must have wanted Barney gay. I respect that. I couldn't change it, even if I wanted to. But MM says "no": if God had wanted homosexuals, "He would have created Adam and Steve, not Adam and Eve." Now really, MM. How could you possibly know that? Furthermore, cuteness is no substitute for reality. God made Chuck and Barney and made us queer and we're doing nicely, thank you. To listen to MM proclaim God's will, it sounds very like their own, or vice versa, or vice versa!

A new entry in the award competition this year, but worthy only of honorable mention, despite a clamoring following on his behalf, is the man from Euleless. Barney appreciates your concern for your candidate. Barney's not ignoring the Euleless case. Barney sees your man's potential and can tell you he'll get his. But consider the competition! I think our several times winner—our star, our moon, our Venus—will not rise again. There's hope for your man.

I realize that in one breath the man from Euleless expressed his "love" for gays out of his duly stated sense of Christian duty. And Barney is well aware that you are correct, good Christians love spontaneously and automatically and do not "blow their trumpet in public." And Barney is aware that your man's loving words were not cold before gays were "despicable" all over again. But Barney can remember when we were called "human garbage" then, with teeth gleaming into the camera, told we were loved and just as quickly, camera removed, told we are "abominations" once more. That's our talented four-time—and only—winner speaking. So you can see that the man from Euleless has a way to go before he makes the bigtime. Hypocrisy is a highly competitive field. And, you do understand, Barney has to keep the award's standards high.

Being sympathetic to our winner's divorce won your man many points; that took talent. Since when can he—a literalist—publicly ignore divorces? Well, yes, he'd no doubt ignore Barney's if... It's when Barney's kind get married and love one another that we can expect fireworks in Euleless that explode on TV in Dallas to be heard all the way to the moon and beyond. His supporters have a good man. He's real Elmer timber.

As is our custom, we pay tribute to old Elmer—that sonofagun of American literature whose shennannigans caused many a winked eye as he went about his duties as aside to a self-proclaimed, itinerant evangelical woman (of the type usually seen on TV today—whereit pays). Among his activities, old Elmer “rammed the fear of God” into ladies of the congregation, but he seems loving and innocent compared with some of our nominees, don't you think? Elmer was a good old boy. He meant well-for Elmer's sake.

Remember, love is fundamental to all of the world's great religions.

YOU and YOUR BODY

EAT FOODS WITH ADEQUATE
STARCH AND FIBER

The major sources of energy in the average U.S. diet are carbohydrates and fats. (Proteins and alcohol also supply energy, but to a lesser extent.) If you limit your fat intake, you should increase your calories from carbohydrates to supply your body's energy needs.

In trying to reduce your weight to "ideal" levels, carbohydrates have an advantage over fats: carbohydrates contain less than half the number of calories per ounce than fats.

Complex carbohydrate foods are better than simple carbohydrates in this regard. Simple carbohydrates—such as sugars—provide calories but little else in the way of nutrients. Complex carbohydrate foods—such as beans, peas, nuts, seeds, fruits and vegetables, and whole grain breads, cereals, and products—contain many essential nutrients in addition to calories.

Increasing your consumption of certain complex carbohydrates can also help increase dietary fiber. The average American diet is relatively low in fiber. Eating more foods high in fiber tends to reduce the symptoms of chronic constipation, diverticulosis, and some types of "irritable bowel." There is also concern that low fiber diets might increase the risk of developing cancer of the colon, but whether this is true is not yet known.

To make sure you get enough fiber in your diet, you should eat fruits and vegetables, whole grain breads and cereals. There is no reason to add fiber to foods that do not already contain it.

TO EAT MORE COMPLEX CARBOHYDRATES DAILY

- Substitute starches for fats and sugars
- Select foods which are good sources of fiber and starch, such as whole grain breads and cereals, fruits and vegetables, beans, peas, and nuts

SPORTS AWARENESS WEEKEND

The weekends of July 19 & 20 and July 26 & 27 has been claimed as Sports Awareness Weekend.

July 19 & 20 is the weekend of the first local bowling tournament and the softball end of season playoffs. The first local bowling tournament, with team events on July 19 at 10:30 am and the singles and doubles at noon on July 20. Tournament is being held at Stadium Lanes. The softball end of season playoffs games are at 2:45 and 6:30 pm at Levy Field. Winner goes to World Series in Los Angeles.

Weekend of July 26 & 27 is the annual regional volleyball tournament. Games will be at 2:45 pm on the 26th and 6:30 pm on 27th with games being played at Conde Recreation Park.

To:

THE IMPERIAL COUNCIL
THE GAY COMMUNITY OF HOUSTON
AND THE YELLOW ROSE COURT

GENTLEMEN, YOUR MAJESTIES, LADIES AND LORDS,

It is with deep regret that I, Bill Roberts, with heavy heart hereby this day withdraw all titles pertaining to and being Imperial Grand Czarina of Houston and Harris County. All titles that I have given in the Camp fun that was intended to be, are hereby withdrawn by me. If in any way the titles are to be or want to be kept by my court, they are free to ask permission of the Imperial Council to so keep their titles that were given to them. The two (2) Lifetime Titles that were given by me are to be kept only by permission of the Council and permission of the two reigning heads of state, that being Michael IV and Gregory II.

I sincerely hope and pray that the Camp Courts, we tried so vainly and hard to create here in the city of Houston, will come about some day. Its hard to realize that a city of three million people and a population of a half million gay citizens, that this can not come to be. Maybe someday, someone with greater vision that I will be able to achieve this goal. I tried?

My best wishes and my deepest love goes out to the council and those that have really tried to form a camp court. To those that laughed, remember, they laughed at Columbus also.... We are here today aren't we???? After all the laughter died down, a country was born. Maybe here in the great city of Houston, after you have had your laugh, a city will be born here.
