The Southwest's Only Weekly Gay Newspaper

FROM THE EDITOR

Labor Day Weekend is past and what a day it has been. I know it should be weekend, but it all ran together and really seems like one helluva day!

New Orleans way the bars were packed and the Bourbon Pub was full of holiday merriment as usual. The Pub and Parade can always be counted on to be the place to be in New Orleans.

San Antonio's Sagittarius was packed for the Miss Gay Southwest Texas Pageant. I understand it was really quite a show!

And for Houston - the Mr. Gay America Pageant played to a capacity crowd at the Depository, with one of the hottest shows! The Locker was full with a lot of fresh "talent" from out of town and as usual was packed. And the all night bookstores over the weekend (Action, Studz, and After Dark) well - it couldn't have been more fun working in a meat packing plant.

Next week we'll have a special on the upcoming Carnival at Houston's Locker. That big day is September 23rd and should really be an event not to miss!

Til next week,

Mel

MR. GAY AMERICA CROWNED

On Sunday, September 5th, the Depository Club in Houston was the site of the First Annual Mr. Gay America Pageant. The club was filled beyond capacity as contestants competed in sportswear, talent, and swimwear for the title and medallion.

All of the contestants had put together some of the hottest talent together ever seen for the "beefcake" show. One of the most unusual acts seen on stage was that of Mr. Gay Mississippi, Benny Neal, and his knife twirling act. Other acts consisted of precision dancing, live vocal singing, and complete with gymnastics. The overly enthusiastic crowd made all entrants feel like hometown favorites.

The list of judges was that of notables: Mr. Lane West from California, founder of the National Cottillion in Los Angeles and a former judge of the Miss Gay America Pageant in Atlanta; Mr. Charlie Dierkes, working in sales from Cocoa Beach, Florida; Mr. Jerry Clark, an account executive with the telephone company in Hot Springs, Ark; and Mr. James Carr, a sponsor to the Miss Teenage America Pageant and America Junior Miss, from Tulsa, Oklahoma.

The field of contestants was narrowed down to five contestants who were given interview questions on stage before the judges and audience. Second Runner-Up to Mr. Gay America was Robert Jones, Mr. Gay Texas; First Runner-Up was Frank McPeters, sponsored by the Bailey St. Warehouse in Ft. Worth; and the first Mr. Gay America was Eddie Abshire, sponsored by After Dark Book Shops in Atlanta and Houston.

The contest was emceed by former Mr. David C. J. Harrington, former Miss Gay Arkansas Tuna Starr, and two former Miss Gay Universe's, Reyna Turner and Lady Nova Bernard.

On His Way Up

To hear Pasquale once is to know you've heard a superstar in the making. Night after night crowds flock to the Holiday Inn in Mexico City's Zona Rosa to catch Pasquale's performance. When he appears on stage, the lights go down and an expectant hush falls over the audience.

When he begins to sing, the audience is his -- completely.

Pasquale is on his way up!

The Nacional Hotelaria discovered Pasquale in his native Italy. They whisked him back to Mexico where he was, literally, an overnight success. He can belt out an up tune in Spanish, English, French, and Italian, or whisper a love lyric to a spell-bound audience.

Pasquale started singing in the cradle. His father is a renowned guitarist. His mother and eight brothers and sisters all have "the grand passion" for music. At the tender age of twelve he was a member of a quartette, and at sixteen was given a coveted contract to sing with a Milanese orchestra. When the astonished band leader discovered that he was under age, he was sent home to "grow up".

Pasquale has indeed "grown up". He is a sensation in Italy, he knocked in the aisles in Beirut, they loved him in Spain, and he is rapidly becoming a national institution in Mexico.

He leaves early this month for a tour of Central and South America. SHACCO Productions have signed him, and he's turning out as many records for Discos Musart as his busy schedule permits.

Pasquale is on his way up and look for his appearance in the States to be a giant step up.

PLAYGIRL'S

LEO

Model Sean Martin (real name Kevin Flanagan) apparently has made it to a top modeling position in Playgirl's August issue. He is featured as Playgirl's Leo.

Sean is originally from West Palm Beach and has had several years training and experience in modeling and dancing while living in North Carolina. He started his career at 19 in Wilmington where he met and performed with female impersonator Marilyn Maxwell. He convinced her to perform his all time favorite, Marilyn Monroe. Playgirl reports Marilyn is still his favorite. "...There's never been another sex goddess like her." (Playgirl, August 1976, p. 126.)

Marilyn Maxwell convinced him to move to Charlotte where Sean continued to model and dance. He danced with Marilyn at Oleen's and is remembered by owner Don Robinson as "One of the most talented...he could really dance". Also while in Charlotte Sean modeled and performed for the Scorpio Disco on occasion.

Marilyn, still a friend of Sean's, remembers him as "...a person with high ideals. He wanted to get some where. He always said he would make it."

Although Playgirl declined a Free Press request to reprint a photograph for purposes of comparison, Karen Anderson, assistant Art Director for Playgirl, did indicate familiarity with model Kevin Flanagan, Playgirl's Sean Martin. The Free Press suggests a photo comparison with Playgirl photos.

Sean Martin is proof a successful career often begins in most unusual places.

RHODA BLABLITT

One More Time

Well, gang, (here's that old line again) Rhoda's back one more time.

I know some dirt is over a week old, but still note worthy just the same. Such as our editor getting knocked out at Sally's on a Monday afternoon and winding up in New Orleans for cocktails shortly there after. Seems Ms. Terry West really knows how to mix (if that's the right term) a drink!

And speaking of Sally's, this past weekend there was one! I hope I'm able to put half of it into words for you. It seems that to celebrate the holiday, Sunday was costume day for employees. Nunns on roller skates - really! Shades of Tiffany Jones.

E. D. Lloyd informs us that there will soon be a Torchey Lane look alike contest in Houston. It seems that everyone who enters wins!!!!

And for you Hot Springs readers, well, Tuna Starr was in Big H for the Mr. America Pageant. It was nice to see the "old" girl let her hair down and really get with it. It seems that the Houston audiences have really taken a liking to this hot entertainer. It seems that a certain shade of lipstick was appearing on certain bodies back stage, and they weren't drags! I tried to get an explanation from Tuna, but she knows it's rude to talk with her mouth full.

Dr. Frank Steiger and Lee Harper, both of Ah Men fame, gave one of their "famous" cocktail parties Sunday afternoon and the majority of the Mr. America contestants and judges attended. One of the star attractions of the party was former Mr. David, C. J. Harrington who should receive an Oscar for his starring role in Journey to the Center of the Earth. It wasn't exactly about the earth, but it was about a trip going down deep!!!!

Til next time, don't let your meat loaf.

N.Y. NEWS RUNS POLL ON COURT'S RULING ON GAYS

In a recent poll run by the New York Daily News, it was disclosed that more than half of the metropolitan area residents disagreed with the Supreme Court's recent decision that a state may outlaw homosexual acts.

About two thirds of those interviewed said they thought that homosexuals should be accepted in society and treated the same as anyone else.

The Supreme Court, in a brief order on March 29, upheld a Virginia law providing up to five years in prison and a fine up to $1,000 for persons convicted of homosexuals activities.

The Daily News Opinion Poll asked New Yorkers on April 19, 20 and 21 what they thought of the court's ruling. The poll was a random telephone sampling of 535 persons 18 or older in NYC, northern New Jersey, Westchester, Rockland, Nassau and Suffolk Counties.

The question was: "Do you agree or disagree with the recent Supreme Court ruling on Gays?"

The response was: Agree - 18%. Disagree - 58%. Don't Know - 42%.

Agreeing with the decision were 21% of the Catholics polled, 15% of the Jewish polled, and 14% of the Protestants.

Another question was: "Do you think that homosexuals should be accepted in society and treated the same as anyone else?"

The replies were: Yes - 63%. No - 21%. Don't Know - 16%.

Another question was: "Do you think homosexuals are treated fairly in America today?"

The answers were: Yes - 36%. No - 38%. Don't Know - 26%.

Protestants gave a slightly higher percentage of affirmative answers to the last question than did Catholics.

Comments from respondents reflected a wide range of opinions. Some interviewed said gays were "sick" and should be treated. Others said gays should be left alone to lead their own lives. A few said that gays should be accepted in society but should not be allowed to teach school.
