"For marketing's sake, we wanted to be called a gay boy band. I think it's important because often people wonder and with a lot of boy bands, there's always someone who is gay but it's a secret. With us, it's open. But eventually we want to be known as guys who can sing."

—Yves Steinhauer, lead singer of the openly gay boy band Marilyn's Boys.

grenades as Arab children and transvestites ran for cover. But the pop queen has now re-recorded the video minus those scenes in advance of the single's release.

A source says, "As with the album, it's all very hush-hush, but she's keeping a few scenes from the original video and including a lot of newly shot footage."

Sir Elton John has paid out an estimated $12 to $15 million to settle lost lawsuits against his former accountants and management company.

The flamboyant pop star sued accounting firm Price Waterhouse two years ago for allegedly mishandling his financial affairs, but lost the case after taking it to Britain's Court of Appeal. John, 56, has now finally paid Waterhouse costs of around $4.5 million just days before their writ to recover their legal outlay was due to be heard in court. Together with his estimated settlement with John Reid Enterprises, John has now paid the multi-million figure to settle his ill-fated legal action.

Singer and actress Cher is mulling over the idea of making a return to the hit sitcom Will & Grace.

The gay icon proved to be a ratings winner the two times she made appearances on the show, which stars Eric McCormack, Debra Messing, Sean Hayes and Megan Mullally. Although the 56-year-old stresses that she has not made any decisions yet, she admits the possibility hasn't been ruled out.

She says, "Sean just asks me every once in a while, 'Do you wanna come on and do it?' The two times I've done it, it was a blast, but I don't know. I don't know what I'm gonna do tomorrow."

She'll have longer to decide if she wants to appear on the show — NBC announced last week that Will & Grace had been renewed for two additional seasons, meaning it will remain on air through at least mid-2005.

Rocker Melissa Etheridge and her girlfriend of two years, actress Tammy Lynn Michaels (of the TV show Popular) have announced their formal engagement. The two plan a wedding date in late 2003, with invitations to go out sometime in October.

Bayou Babies — Miss Bayou City USofA 2003 gets rolling at Inergy on Sunday, April 27. The pageant, a direct preliminary to Miss Gay Texas USofA, starts at 10:30 p.m., but contestants should register starting at 4.

A Queen's Night Out — April 25 and 27 is the Miss Viviana's 2004 Contest. Categories include talent, eveningwear, interview and presentation in Spring colors. Former winners Diana Jackson, Mario Fox and Tony Borg will be there.

Biker Bash — If you've got a motorcycle, you'll want to park it in front of Mary's starting April 25 and proceeding all weekend. Hogs and all others are welcome to join in the food, games and the inevitable photo opportunity. The buffet reception starts Friday at 8 p.m., with Pride Rides at noon Saturday and Sunday.

Theater Queens — The Altruists, a play about bed-hopping young radicals that has been called "naughty and hilarious," continues its run at Theater New West with a cast of hot Houston talent. Tickets are $15-$20. For reservations call 713-522-2204.

Austin Outing — On Saturday April 26, customers of JR.'s can catch a free ride to Austin for Flugtag, where bunches of outrageous home-made flying machines get launched off a bridge in to Town Lake. Buses leave from JR.'s at 8 a.m. and return at 10 p.m. To sign up see George Konar at JR.'s.

Fashion Sense — M2M hosts a fashion show on Friday, April 25. The models take to the runway at 11:30 p.m. at the Gatsby.

Taurus (April 20-May 20) With the Sun firmly in your sign for the next four weeks, financial aspects will take a definite upturn. This is not the case regarding your love life, however. Between career demands and aiding a parental figure, there's just no time. Try to catch up on some sleep this weekend. Make Sunday a play day.

Gemini (May 21-June 21) A real estate deal that had previously eluded you now makes its way back. Your powers of communication and persuasion come in handy on the 28th. Watch who you confide in on the 29th. Lunar aspects on the 1st are likely to have you on edge. Channel this energy in the most positive way that is available.

Cancer (June 22-July 22) It'll seem as if almost nobody will understand just where you're coming from this week. Work this to your advantage, Cancer — it's good to keep people guessing sometimes. Physical energy levels look low on the 27th, so tackle no strenuous chores that day. Hire someone to do the yard work for a change.

Leo (July 23-August 22) Unlike Cancer, people will be hanging on your every word all week long. This is fine since you enjoy being the center of attention most of the time. The icing on the cake involves that long-in-the-works financial prospect which magically comes to fruition. Gladly accept all the praise your boss has to offer.

Virgo (August 23-September 22) Having low expectations will make the next few days seem more tolerable. Nothing really disastrous happens, but it'll be slow going with annoying obstacles seemingly all over the place. You'll badly need to unwind by Sunday. We suggest a low-key brunch followed by some window-shopping.

Libra (September 23-October 22) This week will contain more starts and stops than an Amtrak train. Don't look for consistent momentum. Short energy bursts are the driving force, especially Saturday night. You'll need to make some noise in order to get that money paid back. Don't shun an old friend who just wants to help you out.

Scorpio (October 23-November 21) Up your intake of fluids (and we don't mean colas or coffee) and add some vegetables to that highly unusual diet. Polish up those social graces for this weekend. Prepare for a surprise — a last minute invitation. Surfing the Internet on Tuesday evening yields some startling but useful information.

Sagittarius (November 22-December 21) That intuition of yours is right on target all week long, so trust it implicitly, especially where games of chance are concerned. Travel plans come off without a hitch. Use plenty of sunscreen on Friday. An unexpected romantic encounter on Saturday will have you waltzing on air. Congratulations, Sag!

Capricorn (December 22-January 19) Split-second timing and sticking with tried and true techniques guarantee a successful week for you (at least where career matters are concerned). Lack of communication on the homefront needs to be tended to asap. Don't avoid talking about sensitive issues — it's time the air was cleared.

Aquarius (January 20-February 18) Worrying seems to be a habit with you lately, and not a good one. Everyone has anxious moments periodically — it's a matter of how you choose to deal with the stress. That bash you're hosting Saturday night will turn out beautifully — just make sure to catch up on some beauty sleep Friday.

Pisces (February 19-March 19) Respect the privacy (and pain) of a dear friend who is going through an ordeal. Offer solace and help only if asked. An out-of-town getaway on Saturday is just what the doctor ordered. You've been so focused on work lately, your fun side has been neglected. Now, you get to catch up and let your hair down.

Aries (March 20-April 19) The week gets off to a rip-roaring start and stays that way until Wednesday, when it sort of fizzles out, so it's best to complete any major projects by the 29th. Shop around a bit before hiring someone to renovate your dwelling (get at least three estimates). A secret admirer has their eye cast on you.
