Houston's pride parade celebrates its Silver Anniversary!

"I really don't want to eat fish anymore. I told Andrew [Stanton] that the next character I want to play is a tub of Haagen-Dazs ice cream. That's one thing I'd love to be able to resist."

— Ellen DeGeneres on why she can no longer eat fish after having provided the voice of one in Finding Nemo, to the New York Post.

Outrageous singer-actress Grace Jones has fallen in love with an English aristocrat 16 years her junior.

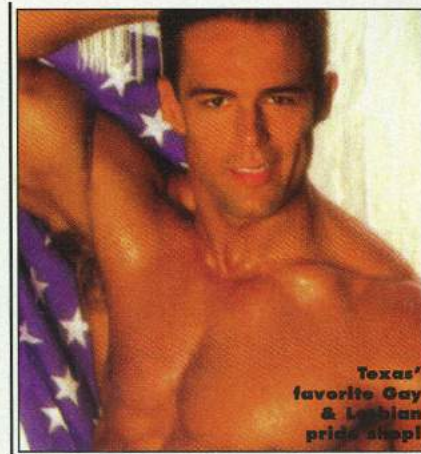

Viscount Ivor Wimborne is reportedly smitten with the androgynous 51-year-old Jamaican former Bond girl, after the pair met in New York last year. Now friends of the 35-year-old peer and record producer — who inherited $45 million when his father, the third viscount, died in 1993 — say he's ready to make Grace his Viscountess.

A friend of the Wimborne tells the Britain's Daily Mail newspaper, "Even though they come from very different backgrounds, there is a real chemistry between them. He is absolutely besotted with her and marriage is definitely on the cards. Grace took a real shine to Ivor and he was unable to resist. She's a woman with a very strong will who does not take no for an answer."

around on the equipment."

Young's first professional gig was an unexpected stroke of luck. A nightclub-owning friend in Washington, D.C., was in a

DJ in a male-dominated industry. "I always had a backup plan," she says, and she continued her studies, graduating from college with a degree in speech bind — her DJ had cancelled at the last minute, and she asked Young to fill in. Although somewhat reluctant to perform for a crowd, Young dazzled the dance floor with a blend of hip-hop and house.

"I was playing for a crowd and getting paid," Young communications. "I worked at a radio station. I knew I would be doing something in music, and I hoped it would be deejaying. But back then there were no female DJs at all, so I honestly thought I was going to be in radio for the rest of my life."

Today, Young feels that being a female DJ is no longer an issue. "I definitely think that I've broken down barriers. People recognize that I'm a woman, but I don't think it matters as much as it used to. I like to think it's now all about the music."

Young firmly believes that selecting proper music is the basis to any successful gig. "One of my most important skills is reading a crowd," Young says. "There are songs that I may not like, but I feel I should play simply because I am there to play for the people. I realize that to be a popular DJ, you have to give the people something that they want, and I certainly want to be around for a while."

For the Houston stop, Young plans to spin a combination of high-energy tribal tracks and vocal anthems. "I will definitely throw in those gay anthems," she offers with a laugh. "They are certainly needed when you are doing a gay pride week remembers. "I thought it was great. It was money for my college tuition, and I ended up saving it pretty quickly."

Young was always realistic, though, about her chances of finding steady work as a female

When she's not on the road, Young often can be found in her Miami studio either remixing singles or working on original productions. "I'm a walking beat machine," Young says. "I wake up in the middle of the night and I hear things. And I hear things all day long."

She confesses equal affection for both types of studio work. "With remixing, I like how a song is transformed into a dance track," Young enthuses. "And with original production you are building something from scratch."

One of Young's recently released studio projects is the full-length CD Tracy Young Remixes Living Theater in which she transformed 11 chillout songs from the Buddha Bar Living Theater series into pulsing dance tracks.

"Each song is very different," Young says. "First I did all the music, and then I put the words on top. I've been playing those in my sets, and people are dying for the songs. They all sound different, and they all take you somewhere different." Other upcoming projects include launching her record label and additional remix projects including a second Living Theater album.

Young advises anyone with an interest in becoming a DJ to remain persistent. "Don't take no for an answer," she says. "You are going to hear it more than you ever hear yes. But there is room for everyone if you believe in what you do and you know that you are talented. It happened for me."

Houston's Gay Pride Weekend arrives in style

Houston knows how to do Pride right — an evening parade to combat the heat, plenty of community-conscious events, and of course too many parties to shake a stick at. The following is a schedule of major Pride events coming this weekend.

BAILE 2003

This black-tie soiree celebrates Hispanic culture with a dance with musica latina. The fund-raiser benefits the gay and lesbian community, with a silent auction from 9 p.m. to midnight and a reception at 9:30 p.m. Radisson Astrodome (Sam Houston Ballroom), 8686 Kirby. Friday, June 27, 9 p.m.-2 a.m. $30 in advance, $35 at the door. Call 713-642-9797.

Pride Cabaret

Before the Parade Passes By... Again!, Alley Theatre, 615 Texas Avenue. Friday, June 27, 8 p.m. (VIP reception to follow performance). $50. Call 713-529-6979.

Steel Pride

This night of pride, music and entertainment will be used to announce and celebrate Steel Weekend, the new annual October fund-raiser that will feature four parties benefiting community charities. From Grey Party Inc. Meteor. Friday, June 27, 9 p.m.-2 a.m. Donations accepted at door. Call 832-567-3916 or visit www.steelparty.com

National HIV Testing Day

Before the parties, remember that free, rapid HIV antibody tests will be performed with results in less than 30 minutes. Montrose Clinic. Friday, June 27, 11 a.m.-5 p.m. Free. Call 713-830-3000.

Out of the Bars and into the Streets with Q-Patrol

Join Q-Patrol on a special patrol through the Montrose area the night before the parade. Meet at GLBT Community Center, 3400 Montrose #207. Friday June 27, 9:30 p.m.-12:30 a.m. (Repeated Saturday June 28, 9:30 p.m.-12:30 a.m.) Call 713-528-SAFE (7233) if you plan to attend either.

Official Pre-Parade Party

"Silver" will be the theme for this evening with special guest performer The Lady Bunny, best known for creating Wigstock in New York. The Lady Bunny Presents a whole new show, beginning at 12:30 a.m. and 1:30 a.m. on the main stage. Rich's. Friday, June 27, 9 p.m.-3 a.m.

Pre-Parade Concert with Amber

Details and location to be announced. Saturday, June 28, 6-8 p.m.

Original Nighttime Pride Parade

For Houston's 25th anniversary Silver Celebration, the nighttime Pride Parade will feature a special synchronized light show and pyrotechnics display at the Grand Stand, across from Mary's. Appearances by dance diva Amber, Queer as Folk cast member Robert Gant, Dallas drag drill team The Strangerettes and a section of a special 25th anniversary Rainbow Flag created by Gilbert Baker, the rainbow flag's Betsy Ross. Emcees Maria Todd and Ernie Manouse return to the Grand Stand. Lower Westheimer From Woodhead to Whitney. Saturday, June 28, 8:45 p.m. Free, but bleacher seating with a prime view is available for a $25 donation to the Pride Committee of Houston.

Post-Parade Pride Party

"25" will be the theme for tonight with recording artist Amber, who will take to the Bud Stage at the Parade, then she will follow-up her performance at Rich's with her entire show, beginning at 1 a.m. Rich's. Saturday, June 28, 9 p.m.-3 a.m.

Afterhours Party & Laser Show

On Saturday, June 28 — or rather, early Sunday morning — The Official Houston Pride Afterhours Party gets going at The Gatsby. The fete features the return of Los Angeles DJ sensation Dawna Montel and a laser light show. Doors open at 3:30 a.m., and advance tickets are available at M2M Fashion for $20. A portion of proceeds benefit the Pride Committee of Houston.

Pride Parade Awards Ceremony

Parade emcee Ernie Manouse and Queer as Folk cast member Robert Gant will help present the trophies honoring the best of the best of Houston's Pride Parade entries. Meteor. Sunday, June 29, 4 p.m.

All the World's a Stage

An evening of gay theater and gay song. Ovarions, 2536 Suite B, Time Blvd. at Kirby. Sunday, June 29, 6-10 p.m. By invitation only. Call 713-547-0440.

The Babylon Tour

The tour, which runs all summer, recreates Babylon, the vibrant nightclub featured in the television series Queer as Folk, in top clubs across the nation. Music provided by DJ Tracy Young with a special appearance by Queer as Folk cast member Robert Gant. South Beach Night Club. Sunday, June 29.

It's summertime in Texas and things are really heating up — especially when it comes to sexy swimwear that fits and flatters. It may be a little late in the season to try and exercise your way to a perfect body, but with so many styles to choose from, you're sure to find something that works with what you've got.

I'll start with the ubiquitous uniform for swimmers and (unfortunately) old men with huge bellies — the bikini-cut swimsuit. While European men have favored this style for decades, it hasn't ever really caught on in the U.S., save for Fire Island, Palm Beach and any swimming pool in the gay 'hoods. Well, there's a reason for that: the cut is very revealing and doesn't work for everyone.

Speedo is the king (or is it queen?) of the bikini-cut swimsuits that vaulted the hunkalicious Mark Spitz (the sexy mustached swimmer who won seven gold medals at the '72 Olympics) into a gay icon. Nowadays, there are a variety of manufacturers offering up their own interpretation of the bikini in a variety of colors, prints and fabrics. (Watch out for loud prints because there are some really ugly ones out there.)

While bikini-cut swimsuits are not very forgiving, square-cut designs flatter a variety of body types. I first saw this style about five years ago in designer lines such as Gucci, Prada and Moschino. Over the years, the look has become red hot, thanks to less expensive interpretations at a plethora of price points. Many of the fabrics stretch for comfort and clingability. They're basically the swimwear equivalent of the boxer brief, only with shorter legs — think '40s and '50s Hollywood hunks like Rock Hudson and Montgomery Clift.

In an effort to bring you the best of the best, I went looking around Texas to see what's hot in swimwear this summer. My first stop was Dallas' Skivvies and Outlines, which feature a large selection in a variety of price ranges. At Skivvies, I first spied a red, square-cut suit that was football pant-inspired with a leather lace-up front (a look that's also very hot right now in workout shorts). Designed by Sauvage of California ($37), it is the perfect look for someone with a nice bod.

More on the mod side was a black, retro pair from Vuthy New York ($41). Its graphic fish print will go swimmingly well at a pool party. For more coverage, the biker-short-inspired, animal print suit by Solar ($58) was novel. With this suit, one can reportedly get an all-over tan with its unique "tan-thru" fabric.

Over at Outlines, the swimsuit selection gets a bit more upscale, with designer labels as well as budget-conscious lines. I love the citron green suit from

Pride Explosion — It's Pride Weekend in Houston, with plenty of parties, plays, parades and more to keep you busy. Check out the schedule of events on Page 17.

Comets Show Their Colors — Houston's WMNA franchise, The Comets, host their first ever Pride Day on Saturday, June 28. The opponents will play cross-state rivals San Antonio Silver Stars. It's also Autograph Day for the first 1,000 to arrive. Tip off is at 3 p.m. Tickets range from $8-$25.50.

Leather Paraders Seek More — Leather in Exile invites interested persons to join them as they march in the parade on Saturday. Line-up begins at 7 p.m., and marchers are asked to wear their favorite club and leather gear... as long as it complies with laws concerning exposure. Call 713-524-1087 for more information.

Mama Loves Mambo — Mambo Girl, a bizarre cross-dressing comedy by Steve Lovett, continues its run at the Stargaze Theatre. In recognition of the parade, there will be no Saturday performance, but there will be one on Sunday, June 28 at 6 p.m. to make up for it. Otherwise, performances are Fridays and Saturdays at 8 p.m. through July 12. Tickets are $20-$26. Call 713-426-2626 for reservations or information.

Calling All Boys — The 2003 Boy of Montrose Contest comes to Ripcord on Sunday, July 6, finding the best boy for some daddy. Categories include appearance (slacks, started shirt, vest), Q&A, a three-minute speech on the subject of your choice and the popular "fantasy boywear" competition — leather, jock, shorts, club duds, whatever. Late entries are accepted until 6 p.m. on the day of the contest, with the festivities beginning at 8 p.m.

Drag Bingo — Wednesdays are Drag Bingo Night at Meteor. Hosted by Southern Comfort and Lillian Deveroux, there will be prizes awarded and you can help support local charities. Plus, there are shot specials all night long, with Happy Hour from 4-8 p.m., $2 domestic beer and $2.75 premium beer.

Cancer (June 22-July 22) There are plenty of ways to enjoy a good time without spending too much money, which should help you get through this week. All of the bills coming in at once causes a temporary short circuit. A new moon on the 29th is likely to heighten the urge to find a mate — just be careful where you look for one.

Leo (July 23-August 22) Saturday night proves to be a social highlight as you dazzle the masses with your charm and unbridled charisma. Go easy on the partying to avoid that Sunday morning hangover. Minor hassles can't stop you from winning a career race on Tuesday. Let someone else tackle the mundane tasks on the 2nd.

Virgo (August 23-September 22) Planetary aspects have you riding on a solid and steady holding pattern, which is just the way it should be. That wardrobe of yours could use a dash of color (ask Leo for some tips). Digestion problems on Monday will vanish as quickly as they arrived. Physical energies reach a peak on Thursday.

Libra (September 23-October 22) You can only hide out at home for so long, Libra — eventually, friends will form a search party to come and get you. You're more highly thought of than you'd ever expected. Throw a yard sale on Saturday for some extra spending money. Give that roommate a pep talk on Monday — he really needs it.

Scorpio (October 23-November 21) Dealing with difficult clients is a large part of your expertise. Prepare for a real workout this week. Juggling career and personal issues won't be easy, but you'll pull it off. A relative who'd been ailing makes a wonderful turnaround. Sunday's new moon makes you a bit antisocial, but that's perfectly okay.

Sagittarius (November 22-December 21) That month-long marathon ends on the 3rd, and then you can comfortably collapse on the 4th (for a day or two anyway). Your energy level has held up surprisingly well. You'll find some real bargains shopping for furniture on Tuesday. Prepare to receive a deluge of phone calls all day Wednesday.

Capricorn (December 22-January 19) Eating fewer/lighter meals will get rid of that sluggish feeling. A truce could be on shaky ground due to a trivial misunderstanding. Monday finds you on the road from sunup to dusk. Excess cash (at least most of it) should be put aside for a rainy day. Double-check your schedule for Wednesday.

Aquarius (January 20-February 18) Delays appear like weeds and frustrations abound, but none of it seems to faze you because you've learned to not take life so seriously. A financial hunch on Monday turns out to be correct. Travel plans for late July should be firm by Wednesday. You really got a bargain with this trip!

Pisces (February 19-March 19) Stress levels reach a peak of sorts on Friday. Take the weekend off for a well-deserved respite. Sunday brunch looks to be especially enjoyable. Don't throw a fit because of that jury duty notice — chances are you won't be chosen anyway. Those weird dreams should be studied closely for messages.

Aries (March 20-April 19) To say that you're a genius is not a stretch, Aries. Bright and unique ideas constantly flash through that mind, you just don't write enough of them down. That camping trip this weekend is just what the doctor ordered. Start looking at brochures for the fall semester — there are classes waiting to be taken.

Taurus (April 20-May 20) Five of the next seven days look very bright and productive, but Monday and Tuesday prove to be a chaotic but colorful mess. You're being spread too thin and need to cut down on that back-breaking schedule or risk getting ill. Remember, not everything can be perfect. Just do the best that you can.

Gemini (May 21-June 21) There's no lack of passion in your life but skills involving organizing and fine tuning do need some work. A trusted friend has a burden to share — try not to be judgmental when it's unloaded on you. Unexpected cash comes to you on Monday. Use it to celebrate for the three day July 4th weekend.
