not yet divinely inspired, or for another unnamed reason, not yet compelled to make any firm statement of finality about the future. Perhaps it is sufficient to contain emotions in the past and present rather than profane them in a future of decadence and ruin. The contemporary aftermath of social tumult is photograph enough of the distressing social commotion, unease and agitation and impending disaster so keenly felt and so visibly expressible these days. Obviously it offends her as a photographer and she simply turns her back.

Libby was educated in the school of Visual Arts after doing her "liberal" deeds at the University of Miami and Fairleigh-Dickinson. She has traveled the United States, Mexico, Canada, Japan and the Far East.

For her first show she played a role in a group display at the New Paltz Gallery in upstate New York. Her first one-woman show occurred at the New York Camera Club in the fall of 1972. In the summer of '73, she had another at the Oscar Wilde Gallery on Christopher Street. Last year, '74, she exhibited alone at the Midtown Gallery on 14th Street in New York City.

As for publications, she's been credited in Infinity, Photo-Reporter, 35mm Photography and Popular Photography's Annual in the summer of 1974.

As for personal details, Libby lives in Greenwich Village with an unnamed lover, a 6-month old dog called "Lady" who has almost learned to behave like one, plus Pearl and Maggie, two cats at last report in a nervous state of high meow.

was ready for anything now, but when I first saw myself walking, I didn't know what to think except 'oh wow, is that the way I walk? It was a gas. It was a trip I couldn't believe. . ."

We asked Tom Moore if he considered himself a porno actor.

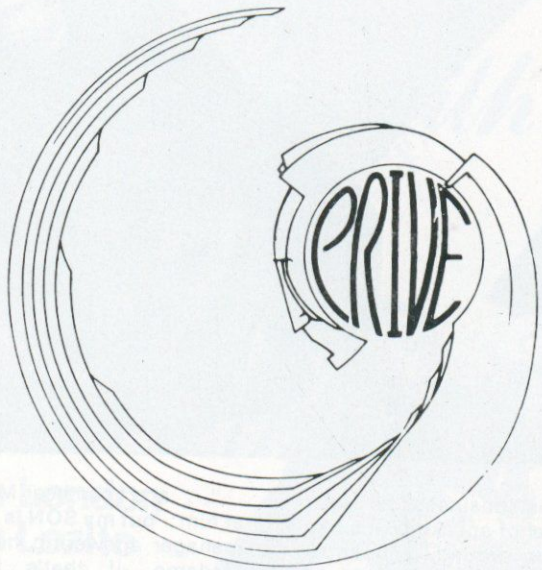

"Well now, I forget sometimes. It's like another person entirely. But don't get me wrong. Hell no! It's not because I'm ashamed about porno. Shit, man! It's the way I am. You see, it's that I'm very shy. By nature, I'm a very modest person. No. Deep down inside I don't feel as if I'm any kind of star. If I did, don't you see that I'd have to live up to the image of that guy on the screen? I'd have to be on stage all the time and that's not Tom Moore. . .

"Now you take Bloomingdales, for example. I would dress up and do a star thing. I'd walk down the center aisles. The gals would nudge one another as I'd pass by. Naturally, I would act it out, you know, pretend that I didn't see them. . .like, man, they weren't there. And then I'd cut loose at the Braggi counter. You dig that what they expect to see is the telephone man from the movie. . .but it's me. . .It's the real me. Laughing down to the real Tommy, you understand?"

After the film Tom Moore had some problems. It was difficult for him to make up his mind, to decide what he wanted to do. Really, and he expresses it well, "there was really nowhere to go."

The people interested in Tom Moore's future started to get the porno star 'organized.' They pushed him towards modeling. Next came acting. . .but nothing valid really happened. And what was worse was that at the time there was no real activity in the porno field. . .if indeed we could say that the porno field even existed. In those days it was a mere baby, squealing, soiling its diapers but if you couldn't see it growing, you could fell it surging, so to speak.

Said Tom Moore: "So, well now that I'm making another film, I'm considering this business all over again. In a matter of speaking, it's like the second time around, you know what I mean? In the new film, soon to be released but as yet untitled, I play opposite Terry Hall, who played in Johanna. This is only a small role, I know that. But I do have some lines and they're not bad at all. But I want to point out that this new movie isn't at all like the first film.

". . .you see, the first film. . .well, it was when everything happened. . . for me. I'll never forget when my mother came to town. At that particular time," Tom smiled as he remembered, "I was living just a few blocks away from the theatre. Needless to say, it just had to happen. One bright day she passed by the theatre. Her eyes widened when she saw my picture on the front. She tried to get in. . .but the management of the place would not let her in. No way!

"Being my Mon, she put up an argument but the management was adamant. I can imagine the conversation she had with this cat. But Madame, please. A Lady Of Your Age. .would never in a hundred years appreciate this kind of film.'

". . .and I can hear Mom's snapping at him: 'but my SON is in it!' Then the manager answering her: 'Well, okay Madame, if that's the case, I'll concede. You just bring your son along with you and I'll let you in!'

That's a real switcheroo on the old days when Tom Moore's mother had to take him to the movies. But now, as Tom looks back on this incident he has to smile. They met soon after the scene with the theatre manager and Tom convinced her to get back on the bus. . .which she did. . .and we can imagine him heaving a sigh of great relief.

Tom Moore is a star in a new field. He feels that there is a place out there for his talents now. As long as the public crowds into the movie houses featuring skin flics, and incidentally paying as much coin as any heterosexual Hollywood feature demands at the boxoffice, there's got to be space for him.

As far as we are concerned, there's plenty of room in the firmament of stars for another constellation and there's no doubt that Tom Moore is ready, willing and able to rocket off into stardom once the countdown has been ordered. □

the stars and I agree

by Dellie Dorfman

Capricorn, Christmas and tradition. In the words of Charles Dickens and Tiny Tim: "God Bless us, everyone." May I wish all of you the very best Christmas and New Year's ever. By the way. Happy Birthday, first week of Capricorn!

DECEMBER 23
Forget frivolousness. This is a down-to-earth day good for swearing to God that you'll never again get involved with. . .or. . .take your choice and fill in the blanks. This should be a slow and easy day (which ain't easy 2 days before Christmas). Have 2 or 3 people in tonight and really get into each other (don't laugh, I mean spiritually, not physically). Your birthday this year should be uplifting. Happy 6 years L.

DECEMBER 24
You know that story about the animals being able to speak at midnight on Christmas Eve. This year it's entirely possible. Make sure you have one of God's special creatures around tonight so you can see what happens. That would be a swell Birthday present if it really happened, wouldn't it? Perhaps having Dr. Doolittle to your Christmas Eve Party would be helpful. I'm sure he would be very pleased with your endeavor.

DECEMBER 25
Merry Berry! Especially to you kids who get gypped out of their Birthdays because they're born on Christmas. From me to you: Here's a double-extra terrific—special Birthday wish for everything wonderful. This year your birthday is a slow and (it might be very cold) easy one; avoid getting over excited. Wrap up tight and do a lot of cuddling. Yummy Yummy.

DECEMBER 26
Today is a Lu-Lu—at once super intense and mind bogglingly confusing. The best advice I can give you is not to take anything too seriously. DO NOT even try to make any additional plans. You're going to have enough trouble sticking to the ones you've already made. Tonight is bound to make your Birthday memorable and very, very special!

DECEMBER 27
If yesterday was peculiar, today is National Banana Wacko Day. Emotionally there are about 9 sharp turn arounds which ought to leave you good and confused—if not drained; and imagine all this takes place before dinner time. (Maybe you should sleep until then.) Tonight throw caution to the winds and take a chance. Maybe your Birthday will be lucky for you?

DECEMBER 28
Take today and rest up from all the confusing hectic stuff that has been going on. If you're into it, today is a great day to fast, giving your body a chance to clean up the mess you've made in the past week. Reading a good book might be a great joy. Spend a quiet evening with understanding friends. Happy (Peaceful) Birthday.

DECEMBER 29
Love, LOVE, L O V E in its most burningly intense form creates very strong feelings today. Make that telephone call you've been hesitant about. It's really a good day to tie up all the loose ends that remain dangling in your life. Enjoy your unique (very) specialness. In fact, share these qualities with your friends on your Birthday.

ARIES OR ARIES RISING
Don't be hesitant to make this a week of reunions. Get in touch with people you've been meaning to contact and make them part of your life again. Keep close track of all arrangements made this week and pay strict attention so that everything works out smoothly. Christmas day may hold some incredible surprises for Mars' children. Celebrate in honor of better days to come.

TAURUS OR TAURUS RISING
A beacon of brilliance shines down on our Taurean friends. Take advantage of this highly creative flash. It may contain the seed of an idea that will lead to something marvelous. The people closest to you may not appreciate this burst of brain power so don't let it become a point of contention. Keep your social circle small and uncomplicated during this holiday season.

GEMINI OR GEMINI RISING
How this Christmas season goes will have an awful lot to do with your attitude. The more positive you are, the better this holiday time will be. It'll also get you a lot of hugging and kissing from the people who will be naturally drawn to you. The projects you've been working on may earn you the recognition you've been yearning for. You're feeling the marvelous potential of 1976 already.

CANCER OR CANCER RISING
Have you thought about having "open house" this Christmas? Now, don't get hysterical! It's just a thought. . . and it might be fun. Whatever you get yourself involved with during this week, make sure you don't get into any arguments. Work up the courage to tell that person you've been crazy about for a while just how you really feel. The result might be surprisingly fantastic. Do you believe in Christmas Miracles (say YES!!!) If you don't, you will!

LEO OR LEO RISING
The Golden Group is in their glory this week. Strenuous party going (and giving) is Leo's favorite form of exercise. Nodding out in taxi cabs provides you with little cat-naps so you can keep going. In the midst of this you may get an incredible job offer. Believe it, but give it a lot of thought before you do anything. Be aware of just what you're worth. Your feelings about the future are much improved.

VIRGO OR VIRGO RISING
This week can give you a very special feeling of satisfaction even if you've been disappointed by someone very important to you. Christmas looks a little shaky. Post Christmas stuff is where the yummy juiceness is. You might even get swept off your feet (Faint & Flutter) and if your own true love is acting like a drip, you might get to have a brand new, own true love or at least a sexy temporary substitute. Whatever you do, be tactful.

LIBRA OR LIBRA RISING
Well, now we're manic instead of depressive. Manic is more fun especially if you've got a lot of things to do. Lots and lots of social jumping and hopping. You may find a really marvelous opportunity for securing a firmer position. Parties taking place in people's houses are terrific. Parties in public places can get pretty hairy and considering how hyped up you are, it would be good to be cautious. Nobody loves a disenchanted Libra.

SCORPIO OR SCORPIO RISING
You and your love in a (strange) little cabin high in the North Woods (wherever the hell they are) curled up in front of the enormous fireplace, warm, loving and swacked out on Hot Toddies made with 402% rum. Sound good? No? Yes? Well it might be useful to do "It" or its equivalent because Scorpio is best off away from it all for the holidays. Soon your communicative abilities will get you what you want.

SAGITTARIUS OR SAGITTARIUS RISING
Here come all those good 'ol friends crawling out of the woodwork. Your deskmate from Mrs. Beecher's 5th grade class; your bunkmate from Camp Kan-Tel-Lope etc. etc. etc. Now believe it or not, you're going to enjoy all this sloppy sentimentalism (which is not very Saggie). In fact, you should make a real effort to make sure that anybody who might be alone (like your new next door neighbor just in from Nebraska) is invited to join you and yours for the Holidays.

CAPRICORN OR CAPRICORN RISING
Would you please stop all this worrying for Pete's sake. This Christmas should be a fabulous one if only you'd stop creeping around worrying. These holidays are spent with good friends having good talk. You should take to your social butterfly role like a duck to water. Enjoy yourself! It'll put roses in your cheeks.

AQUARIUS OR AQUARIUS RISING
I know this sounds corny but here goes anyway. Why don't you and some friends visit people in hospitals and homes during the holiday week? It will make you feel absolutely fabulous. Make several small simple parties and bring people together, thereby extending your family of friends. Make sure you get enough rest and you'll have a wonderful heartwarming holiday.

PISCES OR PISCES RISING
The little Christmas Angels are singing along with our Happy Pisceans. If our Fish people want to get the weirds nobody can stop them but there really isn't a valid reason in the world. This is one of the best weeks you've had in a long, long time. The opportunities are boundless. Even the clouds have genuine silver linings. Take chances, play for high stakes (of course, check it out before hand to make sure the results will be in your favor) and have a Very Merry, Merry.

I hope Santa brings you all just what you want. Have a perfectly wonderful time. Now we only have to get through New Year's and we can take a deep breath. □

CARNEGIE HALL CINEMA

Here is the Christmas Week schedule for the Carnegie Hall Cinema on Seventh Avenue between West 56th and 57th Streets. To determine the show schedule, telephone 757-2131.

MONDAY, December 22, VIVA ZAPATA: Elia Kazan's film provides a new face for Marlon Brando as a Mexican peasant turned revolutionary leader. Anthony Quinn is co-starred. The film was produced in 1952.

On the same program: JULIUS CAESAR: Directed by Joseph Mankiewicz in 1953, Brando disregards meter and verse in his vivid characterization of Shakespeare's Marc Antony.

TUESDAY, December 23, THROUGH A GLASS DARKLY: This is the first film in Ingmar Bergman's religious trilogy. A young woman's plunge into madness is examined with shattering insight.

On the same program: WINTER LIGHT: Made two years later than "Through a Glass Darkly," Bergman assesses belief and faith in a starkly sad study of a rural pastor's life.

WEDNESDAY, December 24, BECKY SHARP: With Miriam Hopkins and Billie Burke (1935) this adaptation of 'Vanity Fair' by Thackeray was the first full-Technicolor feature.

On the same program: MADAME BOVERY: This is Jean Renoir's flavorful adaptation of Flaubert's controversial novel about an incurable romantic whose illicit loves lead to her destruction. It was made in 1934.

CHRISTMAS DAY, BEAUTY AND THE BEAST: Jean Cocteau's faithful adaptation of the classic legend. Made in 1946.

On the same program: BEAUTY AND THE DEVIL: Starring Gerard Phillipe and Michel Simon (1946) Rene Clair created a cinematic enchantment from the legend of Faust.

FRIDAY, December 26, REBECCA: With Laurence Olivier, Joan Fontaine and others never to be forgotten. This is perhaps Alfred Hitchcock's most famous film based on the novel by Daphne DuMaurier (1940)

On the same program: JAMAICA INN: Another Daphne DuMaurier novel of romance, terror, intrigue and a few other things on the English moors. Also directed by Hitchcock (1939), a year before "Rebecca". It features Charles Laughton and Maureen O'Hara. This is a classic!

SATURDAY, December 27, DEATH IN VENICE: Luchino Visconti's lushly photographed film took the Grand Prix at Cannes in 1971. Thomas Mann's novella is complimented by Mahler's music. Dirk Bogarde leads the way through the canals.

On the same program: THE DAMNED: Again Luchino Visconti in a dazzling production. This is an uncompromising study of a Krupp-like family of pre-war German industrialists. Again we have Dirk Bogarde. Helping him are Ingrid Thulin and Helmut Berger. This film was made in 1964.

HOLIDAY MATINEES

Special holiday matinees have been scheduled for Broadway's "Habeas Corpus," "The Ritz," and "Sherlock Holmes."

Please note that each of these 'specials' will be performed in lieu of the usual matinee scheduled to be performed on December 24th, Christmas Day and New Year's Eve afternoon.

"Habeas Corpus" — Martin Beck Theatre, 302 West 45th Street, special matinee on Friday, December 26th at 2:00 p.m. On New Year's Day, the time is 3:00 p.m.

"The Ritz" — Longacre Theatre, 220 West 48th Street, special matinee on Friday, December 26th at 3:00 p.m. On New Year's Day there is no announced change in the weekly performance schedule.

"THE WIZ"

On December 26th at 2:00 p.m. a special holiday matinee has been scheduled for "The Wiz" currently on display at the Majestic (247 West 44th Street - 246-0756). The new musical version of The Wonderful Wizard of Oz, 1975's Tony Award winner in seven categories, is cancelling out its regular Wednesday matinee on December 24th. Ticket prices for all performances, including this special, will remain as usual.

For the scheduled gala New Year's Eve performance on Wednesday, December 31st at 7:30 p.m., the orchestra and front mezzanine seats—for this performance only—are priced at $20.00. Tickets are also available at Ticketron, 541-7290. □

THE DIRTIEST SHOW

At the Truck and Warehouse Theatre (79 East 4th Street) Tom Eyen

Madeleine LaRoux and Anthony White is staging his musical version of The Dirtiest Show In Town. It's one hour and one-half worth of frazzle, fantasy and downtown turn-on! The fantastic show is scheduled through January 3rd, 1976 and each performance improves upon the preceding one. It's new, fresh, the latest thing and abreast of the times as it prickles, teases, pleases and cuddles your sense of humor. The Dirtiest Show In Town is a happy happy marriage between the rebellion of the conformist, the casualness of the wanderer, the gypsy and counter-balances any misgivings one might have had about the original version, as it cleanses and stimulates not only the intellect. . . □

HOLIDAY FEST

The Club Baths is a beehive of activity in preparation for their non-stop holiday festivities. First on the agenda is the annual Club Baths' Christmas Party. This is scheduled for 8:00 p.m. on Tuesday, December 23rd. There's going to be an abundance of tasty food, lots to drink and gifts for everyone. On Christmas Day there's a delicious buffet.

Reservations are strongly recommended for the club's New Year's Eve Gala. There's to be continuous food, continuous drink and continuous champagne to be splashed at Midnight!

CARVE YOUR OWN TURKEY

If you happen to be a party of six or more craving a 'carve-your-own turkey' Christmas party, the Rainbow Room is the right spot to celebrate. The management also provides as a holiday gift a carving set and apron which can be used for holidays to come. In case your eyes are bigger than your belly, a well-designed Rainbow Room tote bag comes with the full dinner at $13.75 per person. Reservations will be accepted at 1:00 p.m., and 3:30 p.m. for the complete gourmet feast.

As we all know the Rainbow Room is at Rockefeller Plaza. The telephone is PL 7-9090. □

A GAY SKI HOUSE

In Southern Vermont, country known for its winter enchantment, a new exclusively gay ski house welcomes enthusiasts to share the fireplace, the sauna and the excellent 'down East' cooking. Transportation is provided and will be arranged in time for the splendid cross-country and downhill skiing for amateurs and professionals.

Christmas week costs $100.00 and this includes the feedbag. Weekends cost $45.00, including wholesome meals. Alternate weekends during the season can be booked for about $200.00 per person.

For details, general information, reservations, telephone 212-794-2770.

According to John Wilson of The

New York Times, Miss Marks is ". . .an ample genial woman with a fine flair for comedy who looks like Bette Midler and sometimes sounds like May West. . .doing numbers bright and airy. . ." And now we find her at the Park Royal Hotel at 23 West 73rd Street where she's already received raves for two Sunday performances. There is one show only and the time is 7:00 p.m. □

LITTLE HIPPODROME

There's only one Lynne Carter and he's returned to town and doing his many things at the Little Hippodrome

at 227 East 56th Street. At times he is unspeakably civil, naughty and full of nonsense. Of course, never dull. Lynne is not only an impressionist, an illusionist, he's a shockingly incisive and dramatic performing actor with unlimited talent with a seemingly born capacity for sumarizing the art. □

PURE DELIGHT

Barbara Cook returns to Reno Sweeney, 126 West 13th Street, on December 23rd. This 'great joy' is programmed right through to January 4th, 1976. Chapman Roberts will aid and abet her for the first week and, for the second, the inimitable Kathy Light. There's no question about reservations being necessary for this pure delight and the number to use is 691-0900. □

SELF-DESIRE, SELF-DENIAL

A brilliantly conceived series of surrealistic photographs dealing with varied forms of egocentric and egotistic thematics are available for critical appraisal at Focus II Gallery, 163 West 74th Street until Monday, January 12th, 1976. The photographer, B.M. Sarao, is from the midwest. His one-man show, 'Arcade of Self Desire' is remarkable for its studied and candid insights into the mystery of "I" and "me" □

CHRISTMAS EVE SUPPER

Fred and Ashley of Greenwich Village's Chalice (185 West 10th Street) announce that in exchange for a gift for the Grab Bag costing what you will, they'll have a "ho!ho!ho! dreamy Christmas." Everyone's welcome to the free Christmas Eve feast at midnight. □

GAY NEW YEAR'S EVE

It's not too soon to take note of the West Side Discussion Group's annual Gay New Year's Eve Ball. Held at its Center on 37 Ninth Avenue at 14th Street, it's planned to start at 10:00 p.m. and continue till. . .

The gala all-night dance will feature special continuous non-stop music and there will be free refreshments. This will include beer, soda, sangria and champagne. Besides this, a buffet will be served. For those wishing to bring their own booze, free set-ups will be provided.

Note that both men and women are invited. A donation of $7.50 is requested. For further information and reservations, telephone 212 924-1761. □

THE ARTIST AND HIS MARKET

Great news for artists everywhere! The second edition of Artist's Market, has just been published. It contains almost 40% more markets for artists, craftsmen and photographers than the initial volume of the annual published last year.

Buyers are listed and they add up to two thousand, eight hundred and ninety-four outlets with funds available for creators of fine art, crafts, designs, illustrations, cartoons and photography. Their detailed requirements fill 624 pages.

The directory is divided into 45 market categories—such as Art Galleries, Craft Dealers, Magazine and Book Publishers, Advertising Agencies, Fashion firms and the like. Each category contains illustrations of the type of art of photography bought by buyers in that special category.

Artist's Market '76 also contains copyright information on art, cartoons, comic strips, films and television as well as a glossary and an intelligent index.

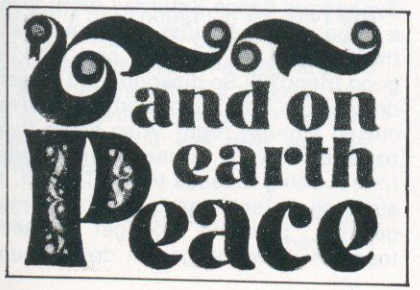

It's not generally known, but the publisher of Artist's Market also publishes Writer's Market, the companion volume that lists 5,137 markets for writers of every description. □

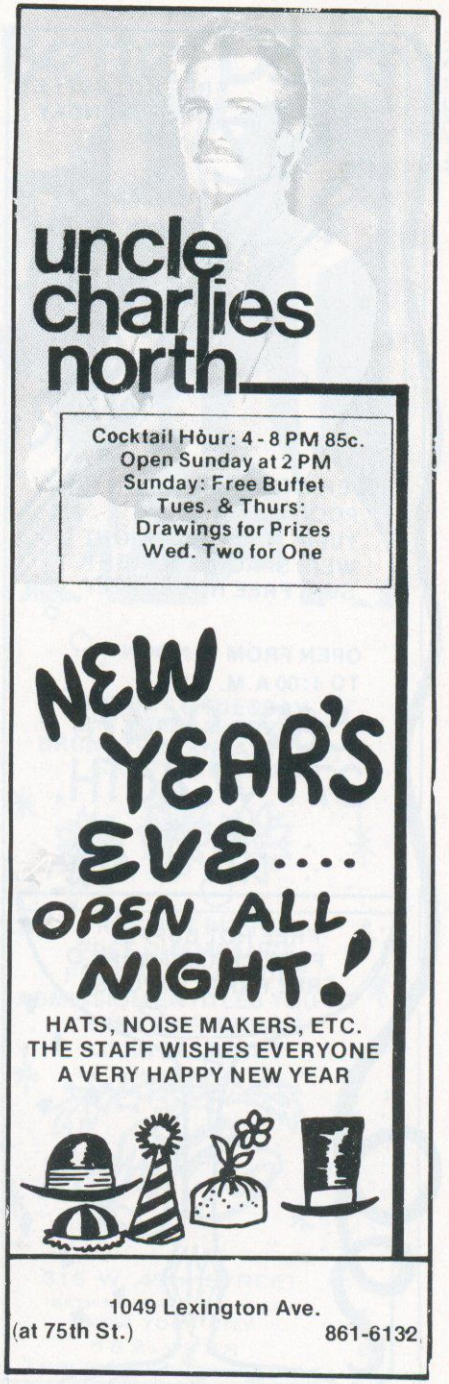

THE GRAND FINALE

Appearing on December 23rd and 29th at the Grand Finale (shows at 9 p.m. and Midnight) will be Michael Greer and Jane Olivor. The location's 210 West 70th Street and a word to the wise is sufficient. □

The whole town is in a flutter, why? Because lovely Kay Hopson and her great husband, Jack flew into the Big Apple to do a little shopping for the Christmas Holidays. If you're lucky, one can catch them at Cartier, Gucci or one of the better stores. You all know it is impossible to get what one wants on Cape Cod. I was so pleased to see both again. So will many of their numerous friends. While in N.Y. they will be staying with our own Lily Bier. Who will share Jack? It's all so cozy. December 16th Lil will be leaving for Stewart, Florida. Don't you love it! Will be a guest of Larry Lawrence and Sam Brian. Now that should keep the natives hopping down that way. Paula of Paula's restaurant dined at The Big Dish, dressed in a stunning sequined gown. Her escort was simply out of this world—so handsome! I hear he will star in an up and coming movie. It's all about the Village. (That should be a blast.) Fedora, and her great husband seen dining. They're so much in love. Fedora looking like a porcelain doll all in biege. Remember Tom tickling the keys at the Island Queen. Well, he did same as a guest player at the Dish, with al. (ALACE), Bobby and Friends. It was quite a group. Also Harold Ferdinand charmed all of us with his sweet piano playing. Harold has played in many of the better clubs here and there. Richard and Stewart of R.J.White Jewelry, Christopher St. and Cherry Grove joined by Howard Lester and Bob Schnell, to celebrate their 21st year in business. The Gay Synagogue dance Saturday night was a huge success. Just everyone was there. Did Alan S. really part with a good friend??? So disappointed to get dressed to the T to find the Prive closed Monday night. Also heard five bartenders were refused admittance for not being dressed to the T. Well, I suppose it isn't easy. It took some genuine planning to get myself together. I haven't gotten dressed up in years. Not even for the Plaza So I stopped over to Gypsy's, with Jeff at one bar, George Kelly at the other (Fifty Dollars a look) and John Myers at the piano, it was a hoot! Wow! Where was Douglas James? Bobby Dean with a table of beauties and Jerry E. seen with Clubs or Ace or one of the playing cards and Gypsy doing her excellent show. WOW! Sorry about David's loss. I do hope it will not delay building at the Grove? Is it true Johnny Savoy and Ed Hickey at the bar will do a show at Carnegie Hall? Such talent! Ruby and Laura seen escorting Big Ed from San Francisco. You all remember Ed was the first tenant at Villa Vista before that household of beauties took over. Yes, Walter is working at the Village Green. Also, you will all be relieved to know that Bob (Stretch) is coming along fine after that terrible mishap Tom Ross seen at "A Musical Jubilee" Had dinner at Uncle Charlie's South with his brother, Bob, from Washington. By the way, Bob keeps coming back. I believe he will take residence here in N.Y. Lynn, of Boots and Saddles sure was interested in watching something at Ty's, and why was Peter of Keller's out without Paul? Everyone knows that's a no-no. Dennis bartender and manager of Ty's doing so much for the Bobby Shea Fund. Frank Bradley and Dan Campbell gave a beautiful party last week. I hear Dan has his eye on a new club in midtown. He'd better hurry. It will soon be time to be back at the Island. Turk and our Bobby seen under an arch at 8th and 12th at 5:00 a.m. Now really! Was it all that good??? Brian and Sean seen at Jamie's, a sweet little cozy spot at 33 East 60th St. Thought I wouldn't see you, huh? Yes, Bob Couch finally got a phone and I hear all the lines are tied up. Are they installing a special cable just so one will get through? Promise to be nice and I will give you that private number.

Love you all. Till next week.

by Joe Palminteri

'Tis the season to be jolly and all that stuff. You have to excuse me if I don't really seem in the Christmas spirit, but somehow it just kind of passed me by this year. It's not easy when you're trying to run around town finding out who's doing what where and also start your own business at the same time, no less you want me to sing Christmas Carols? Come on now, give me a break. All kidding aside, I want to wish all you wonderful people who read my column a very, happy, healthy and most of all, prosperous New Year.

I guess this week I would like to bring to your attention a very beautiful dear friend who has entered the DJ professtion. Her name is Jenny Costa, or should I say Lady J. as she is known to her friends. She is currently working at Butterfield One, (42-01 Queens Blvd.) and has the fabulous Richie Conte spinning with her on Sunday evenings. When I asked her what were some of the things she liked, she quoted "Music, Men and Dancing," in that order. Of course, being a straight lady DJ, to a totally straight disco, then you can see where Jenny is coming from. Anyway, if you would like to treat yourself to some good music being played by a truly professional, dynamite, DJ, be sure to check her out on Wednesdays, Fridays or Saturdays.

Another person I would like to turn you on to is a disc-jockey by the name of Joe!. He is presently DJing at Charisma on Long Island and writes a fabulous column for WHERE IT'S AT called "Long Island Disco Scene." I do not personally know Joel, but from reading his column, I really dig where he's coming from. I also think you should check out his column and if you're on the island, stop over at his club and say hello.

I stopped over at the Hollywood Disco this week and it looked like a DJ convention. Everyone that I haven't seen since Cleopatra was a teenager attended. The first person I bumped into was Michael Cappello. He will be opening Experiment 4 on December 20th. He also gave me the address of the club for those of you who are interested. It's 327 East 48th Street. I also bumped into Larry Levan of Reade St. and Nicki Siano of Gallery. They both promised that their clubs will be spectacular on New Year's Eve. I later saw Mario of Broadway Disco. He said they're making changes in his club to make the dance floor bigger. Last but not least, I met the whole entourage of DJ's from New Jersy there. They told me their biggest record is "Shame, Shame, Shame." It's nice to see the New Jersey DJ's are really progressing in their selection of music. Now, before I have the whole state of New Jersey calling me up I must admit I am only kidding—but I promised Frank Goodman of Brothers III I was going to dish him. To make up for the dish, I promise to write a whole article on the New Jersey Disc-jockeys next week. My only problem is I hope I can get enough material out of them to make a paragraph. Before I really get too dishy, once again, have a Happy Holiday and now let's get to the part of the column you are all waiting for, "The Music".

The TARGET Men

There's something about a Target man! Look elsewhere for the limp-wristed set because you won't find any in Target Territory. "There are plenty of other studios catering to those particular needs," says Jon Target, the force behind the camera. "Our slogan reads "where the MEN are' and that's just what we mean."

There's no valid reason why grace and virility can't go hand in hand," Jon says, and that statement is certainly borne out by the photos on these pages. "The male nude has finally come into it's own — and about time! — and people are beginning to realize that it's a beautiful thing to look at."

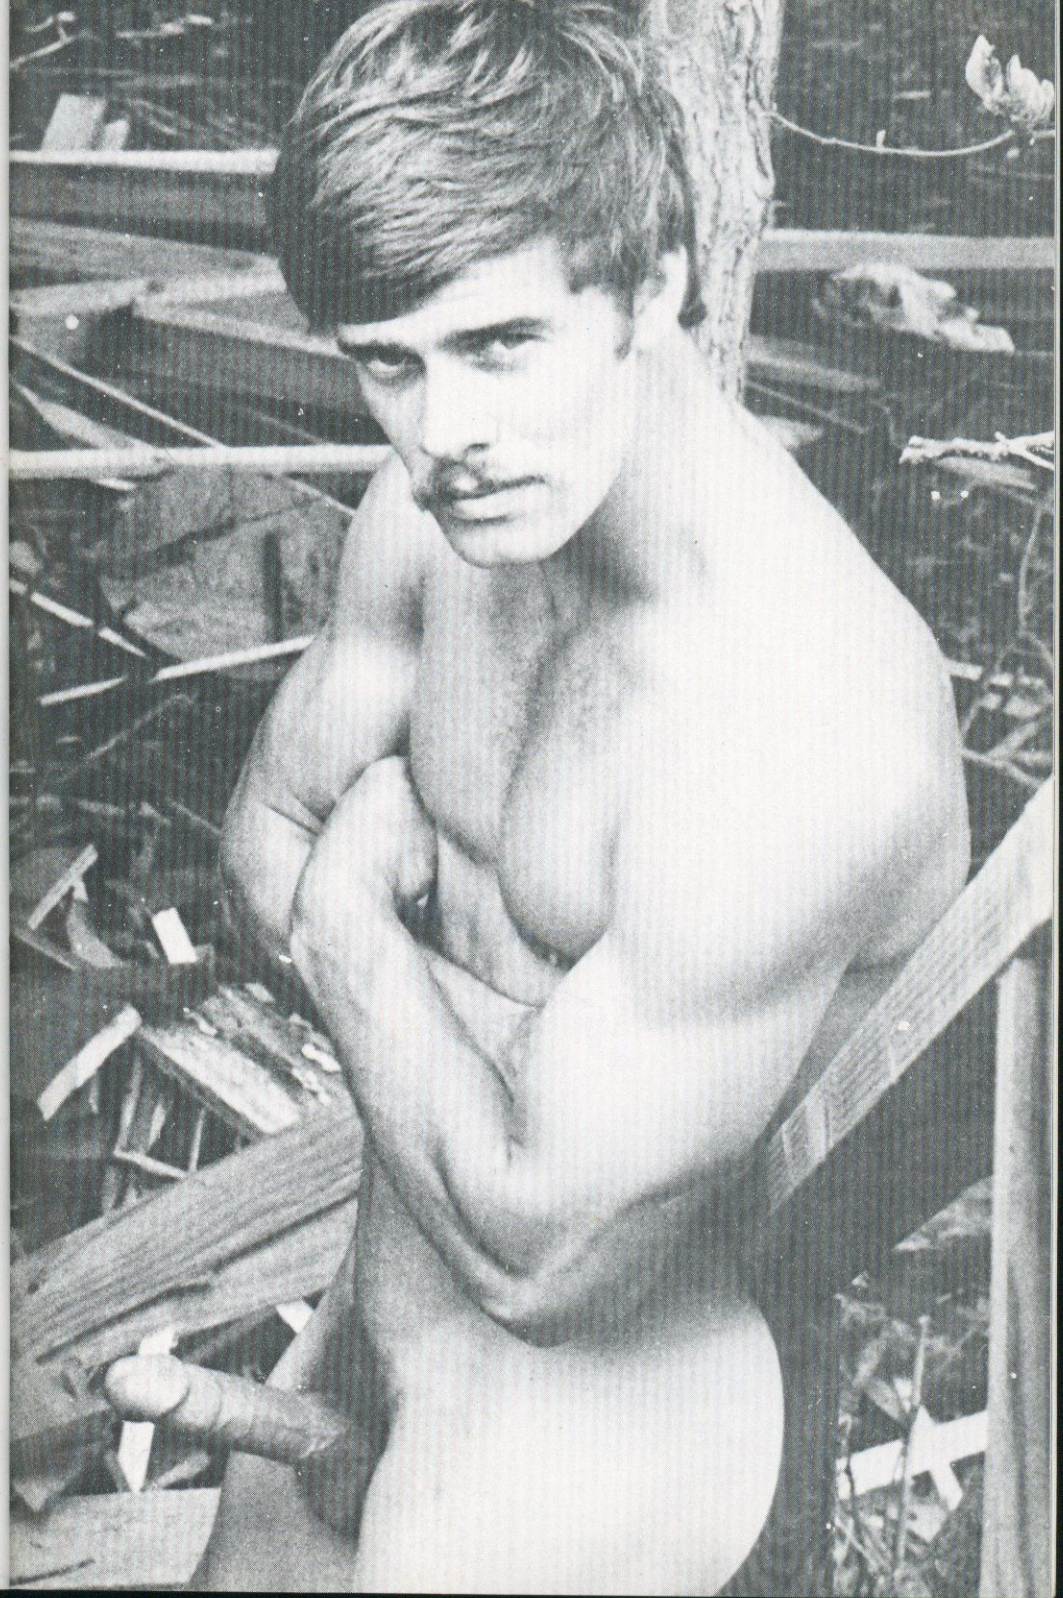

"We leave the window-dressing to other studios, preferring to put it all up front, where it really counts. Our audience wants to see people they can relate to, someone you might meet in a bar or at the baths, and maybe make it with. And believe me, it happens!"

The first issues of Target's DART and JAVELIN magazines have been runaway bestsellers, and our sneak-preview look at DART #2 indicates that it will outdazzle the first issue. As for their 1976 Leather/Levi Calendar, it's undoubtedly the best on the market.

Target's mailing list is kept strictly confidential, and if you want to get on see their full--page ad elsewhere in this magazine. Definitely a best buy!

This boutique is a gift shop as well as a resource for one's own bathroom needs. Not everyone will feel this way, of course. If one is the type who feels that a bathroom is nothng more than a place to piddle, powder and preen, and that everything should be an antiseptic, surgical white, Dear John is too imaginative for him. If, on the other hand, one realizes how many times a day a visit to the John (by guests as well as one's own self) is necessary, and that life there might be just as colorful and pleasant as any room in the house, then even persons on a low budget can achieve a pleasant ambiance in this often-overlooked area. It doesn't take much. A new coat of paint or wallpaper, complimented by fresh matching or contrasting accessories, can spell the difference between daring and drab.

The convenient location of the shop is a boon to the late Christmas shoppers rounding out their gift list chores with stocking stuffers. Goodies here range from $1.50 for an imported glycerine soap to $7.50 for a bath towel (here called a trick towel) with a FF motif. There is a clear plastic soap dish in the shape of a shell with imprisoned butterflies at $5.00 Other clear plastic soap dishes in turtle and whale shapes are $2.50 and $3.00, respectively. Soap-on-a-rope from Crabtree & Evelyn of London, which comes in two sizes ($5.00 and $7.50) struck us as a good item. A French natural-bristle toothbrush at $2.75 has a lot of panache. You can introduce someone to the luxury of a natural sponge for the bath, priced according to size.

For great luxe one can find Limoges ash trays, jewelry boxes, soap dishes, etc. in white with a pastel-colored abstract motif designed for Dear John alone. A really custom-made effect is achieved by having hand towels embroidered with the above-noted abstract design. See it in the accompanying photograph.

For great camp there is a lucite toilet seat (at $150.00) which has imbedded in the seat and cover bits of rusted antique barbed wire. It is also available on order with a coin motif, and there is one with ferns and sea horses. Definitely not for the conservative.

A coral mushroom lamp in two sizes ($18.00 and $21.00), illustrated in this article, is one of the best designed items to be found in Dear John. Not illustrated but also a good design candidate is a night light shaded by a large St. Jacques Compostella shell ($8.00).

My particular favorite in the shop is a very sleek wall hung shaving mirror, which reverses to magnify, that is designed with the economy and precision of dental equipment. It is $13.00.

There is a terry velours wrap-around that would be well suited to after bath or around the house loungewear. There is nothing particularly new about this item except that it is knee length, has a velcro closing and one size fits all (Mr. or Ms.). It comes in a wide range of pretty colors and is $13.00.

Also in the velours department is a really great gift item. It is a bath sheet (or beach towel, if you prefer) which comes in dark brown or royal blue. The gimmick is that it can be embroidered with one's telephone number in large, bold, white letters. One is not limited to telephone numbers, however. Names or catch phrases or you-name-it are available. A really sensational week-end gift, we think. Image the possibilities of sun-bathing and having someone who took down your number call you up later. All this fun will cost you is $25.00. What's more personal than one's phone number? Please note: 2 weeks for delivery.

Dear John is open Monday through Saturday, noon until 10:00 p.m., and Sunday noon until 8:00 p.m.

WHERE IT'S AT welcomes Dear John to the Village because it is happy to see another quality boutique locate in what we think of as one of the best shopping areas in The Big Apple.

Elaine of Bonnie & Clyde, Joe Jenks, Jerry and Leo the Lion of The Bleecker Street, Bob Mauro of The Ramrod, Elaine, Paula, Libby, Dakota, Bonnie and Mark from Paula's, Bunny from The Limelight, Richard Henderson from Carr's, Uncle Paul of Uncle Paul's, to open December 26th on Christopher Street, Martyn Denlea of Privé, Jimmy North of The Holland Bar, Tim Madden of The Cell Block, Jim from Rawhide, George from Peter Rabbit, Peter Johnson, Peter Rodriguez and Jim Kelly of Keller's, Roscoe and Kelly from Kelly's Village West, Florence from The Duchess, Ed from The Eagle's Nest, Lynn, Ty and Doric Wilson from Boots & Saddles, Sherwood from The Big Dish, Barbara and Jean B. from Ronnie's Royal Roost, Choo-Choo, Chuck, Michael O'Malley and Chris from Choo-Choo's Pier, Jeff Sammons from The Spike, Carlos from The Strap, Larry from The Stud, Robin, Ike, Rich Roth and Tom Ross, and various and assorted others whose names or acts we didn't catch. Whoever you are, we love you.

All in all, the auction brought $361.50, the Roadhouse's contribution from the booze (and in addition to that fabulous spread) came to $342.00 and here comes the best part, bartenders' tips amounting to $796.00. Just beautiful! All in all, pennies away from $1,500.00 It just proves what can happen when truly dedicated people get together and pull for one of their own. I told Gloria Upson about it and her comment was (in her particular kind of Westchester lockjaw) "They're all just absolutely top-drawer."

There is another contribution that we can make for Bobby Shea (as if you haven't done enough). He owes the hospital a tremendous amount of blood and the only way it can be paid back is through contributions. Have you ever given blood? Believe me, it doesn't hurt. It's about the greatest expression of love that it's possible to give. All one needs is to be reasonably healthy, and able to spare it. For details get in touch with Kelly at Kelly's Village West.

Best wishes for a happy holiday season and a prosperous New Year. May you all find as much happiness and love as I have this past year!

Well kids! As "Swish Kringle" gets ready to fill our seamless stockings, it's time to find out what's going on in our clubs for New Year's. All the clubs have something special planned.

Between Us Lounge is having a free buffet, noisemakers and no door charge! I'm sure Bob will please everyone! C'est Bon is having a special surprise and a good nite is in store for their customers. Chardy's is having a buffet that I'm sure will be another event. With an open bar and continental breakfast, the charge is $25.00 per person. Charisma is having a show with Georgina Franklin and Paris St. John, and a hot buffet with all party favors included. The door charge is $4.00 per person.

The Coachman is having something different for them, DJ music, I'm sure Pat and Ethel have a good evening planned. There is no door charge. Colonial has a good nite planned for their customers. Bob and Pat will have a great nite along with their traditional hospitality. Marie at the Dockside is having wild entertainment. A closed party with an open bar till 2 a.m. The charge is $20.00. The Lindenmere's having a costume ball with a buffet, party favors and prizes awarded. Of course rooms are available but reservations are suggested. Pal Joey's East and West are both open all night with surprises and drinks are only $1.00 with Piels only 50 cents and Bud, 75 cents. The Silver Lining is planning a great nite with a buffet, party favors, and surprises. They will be open all nite also. I'll have more on New Year's next week.

Now for more news. . .Last Sunday I attended a wedding reception at Chardy's given in honor of Skip and Rick. I want to wish the both of them the best of luck in their life together. The reception was held downstairs in the Fireside Room. The food was fantastic and the whole reception was tastefully done. There were people too numerous to mention. The floral arrangements done by Skip and Rick in their shop, Flowers by Tiffany, were fantastic. They left afterwards and stopped at Charisma on their way to the Lindenmere where they spent the nite and then went on to the city.

The Bartenders monthly meeting was at Between Us last Monday and I'm sure everyone present will agree that it was one of the best if not the the best one yet. Bob did a great job and maybe it's the holiday season, but everyone got along great and just had a good time. Let's hope they continue in this spirit in 1976. Much thanks to Larry and Rusty who both worked their tits off for us.

More news. . .

Pat and Frank have St. Nickolas' Toy Outlet at 3601 Hempstead Tpke. in Levittown. (731-9119) Mention WHERE IT'S AT and get a 15% discount. Frank recently had a car accident. I hope he's well again soon. I hate to shock Little Joey at Pal Joeys! but even I have a lover, dear. Thunderpussy and Peter at Joeys' were seen taking notes. I think they're getting back at me! By the way, Darrin, I heard you could play the organ but I didn't realize that meant the one with keys also. Michael now owns Michaels' Spot and is available for lighting for contests, shows and parties. The telephone number is 472-9309. Things must be good at the Colonial. Danny just bought an Eldorado at Nicky's Dealership and a new house. TSS in Sayville listed in New Gay Guide under tearooms. Much thanks to James of L.I.B. for the welcome also. Many thanks to my customers and friends for all their help and assurance. More next week.

That's WHERE IT'S AT -
