the beat

The beat of Montrose

Hello friends. Today is a good day. A good day to turn it up the EDM and disturb the neighbors. Here's what's filling your favorite club and festival DJ's dance-floors and play-lists all over H-town.

Plenty of fist pumping goodies over at Beatport.com. Check out "If I Lose Myself" from Alesso vs. One Republic, "A Pair of Dice" by Tiesto & Allure, "As Your Friend" from Afrojack & Chris Brown, "Every Day" by Eric Prydz, "I Wanna Dance With Somebody" from Barbara Tucker, "Slowdown" by Showtek, and "Apollo" from Hardwell & Amba Shepard. Good stuff. Don't forget to bump those files in your cart up to WAV or AIFF before you checkout for the best sound quality. Those tracks and more can be found at www.beatport.com.

DJ Chris Allen

Chris Allen is a DJ Playing Halo in College Station and F Bar in Houston

On the iTunes Dance page I picked up several more floor fillers. Really into "That Power" from will.i.am & Justin Bieber, "Stars" by Ferry Corsten & Bestie Larkin, the 2013 Ultra Music Festival Anthems "Air Guitar" from Afrojack and "United" from Tiesto, Quintino & Olvaro, "Monsterbot" by Robosoul, and "I Want You" from local based house music trio Muzik Box. Gotta luv iTunes.

You can catch me spinning these tracks and more live weekly at F Bar in Houston and at Halo in Bryan/College Station. Itz all AbOUT tha beatz.

Remember life might not always be the party you had hoped for, but while you're here you might as well dance.

Long lost TWINS Reunited!

Now those are some serious "Creeper" eyes this fella has- Not sure if he wants to EAT you or F$#K you!

Well...You win some..You lose some! Caught at South Beach after what must have been a high-dollar photo shoot...Right? Was the incredible duo models for the Hairsparry brand "AquaNet"!

80's styles are back- You better get ready! Tank-tops, beautiful eyebrows, and a lot of chest hair! It truly was South Beach at South Beach this weekend.

Surprising the crowd at F Bar several nights ago- Wynonna Judd! No band, no guitar, just the amazing dance moves she learned on "Dancing With The Stars".- How exciting! She has always been a great performer!

REBEL with a CAUSE

With a rocking career and several new movies, Rebel Wilson is "Outta Control"

Rebel Wilson loves being a gay icon!

It was her role as the dim-witted housemate in 'Bridesmaids' that first brought Rebel Wilson worldwide attention — the role as Fat Amy in Pitch Perfect made her a role model to girls everywhere, both gay and straight — says her "gay roots" are in the musical theater, and that made her "perfect" for the part. It's safe to say the Aussie actress is here to stay!

"I started out in the theater, and obviously, in Australia, we say it's run by the 'gay mafia' because all of the super-talented actors and directors are all gay — and so I have a lot of gay guy friends," she said. "I do live in West Hollywood and I do feel very safe on the streets. "It's so nice, though. I love playing all sorts of characters, but gay guys in particular seem to like my characters and my writing."

One might think Rebel is a real woman's woman. "Um, actually I get hit on a lot by African-American homeless men. That seems to be the main demographic I get a lot of attention from, so I'd love it if it turned more around to lesbians. That'd be way, way, way better. But no, I haven't. Yeah, but maybe I don't go out that much, that's why."

On future projects
Yeah there's another movie coming out in December called 'Struck by Lightning' where I work opposite Chris Colfer from 'Glee,' I play his best friend in that. And then I'm also in the new Michael Bay movie which you'll see next year called 'Pain & Gain' which is very different to 'Pitch Perfect'! It's based on a true crime story set in Miami.

MATINÉE LAUNCHES REVOLUTION IN SIN CITY WITH FOUR-DAY WEEKEND SPECTACULAR

BY MARK DAWSON

Matinée is asking fans to "feel the revolution" this Memorial Day – the party revolution, that is. The festival that has become world famous for re-imagining the elaborate party experience with blazing pyrotechnics and production by Cirque du Soleil and Matinée Ibiza, returns to Las Vegas with the biggest dance festival of the summer. Taking place Friday, May 24th thru Monday, May 27th, MATINÉE LAS VEGAS FESTIVAL will play host to over 8,000 clubbers dancing to twenty of the world's leading DJs at eight high-energy party events.

"In today's over technologized world, people want a real interactive experience," explains Paul Nicholls, part of the production team behind Matinée North America. "We combine fantasy elements from concerts, theatrical stage shows, Hollywood films and even video games into one giant offline spectacle."

Patrick Crough and Jake Resnicow

"A Matinée party is all about awe and extravagance," continues Matinée North America's Patrick Crough. "We partner with the hottest and most cutting-edge acts from around the world. For this year's MATINÉE LAS VEGAS FESTIVAL, we've teamed up with the Las Vegas production, Absinthe. We are integrating several of their amazing Cirque acts into our main events. It will be breathtaking."

Matinée launched over fifteen years ago in Ibiza. Since then, it has evolved internationally with lavish events including CircuitFestival Barcelona. When party founders decided to expand the brand into North America, they asked Crough and Jake Resnicow to oversee and produce all parties in the USA and Canada.

Their first Matinée event was Pride in New York where they transformed Manhattan's Governor's Island into an extravagant dance arena, with explosive music and thrilling light shows. At sunset, a surprise fireworks display ignited the skyline.

They made their Las Vegas debut in 2011 with the first Matinée Las Vegas Festival. It included jaw-dropping spectacles, including one that involved synchronized swimmers performing in a glass pool of water set on fire. The evening capped with a surprise performance by pop singer Natasha Bedingfield.

"Matinée raises the bar on nightlife," says Jake Resnicow. "Whether in the heart of Manhattan or on the beaches of Miami, a Matinée event is meant to take revelers out of body and beyond the confines of their imagination."

"One reason we stay so cutting edge is we re-invest into the parties," adds Crough. "As the numbers get bigger, so does the experience."

Last year's MATINÉE LAS VEGAS FESTIVAL was wildly successful. The main event at Rain Nightclub in the Palms Hotel featured Spanish dancers, fire displays and live acts by Cirque Du Soleil. The weekend's big surprise was the large crowd of men that packed the Monday Pool Party. Says Nicholls, "It was a party we added at the last minute because pre-sales were so high. It ended up being a really great way to close the long weekend."

They plan to pull out even more stops this Memorial Day. They have upgraded the main event to one of Vegas' hottest and most exclusive clubs, Vanity at Hard Rock. The dance floor is a massive 14,000 square-feet with an outdoor terrace and fire pits.

The weekend will feature eight events over four days and nights, including main events and after-hour parties at the city's hottest clubs, as well as pool parties at the weekend's host hotel, Rumor. Each party will feature original themes designed to take revelers on a weekend-long journey.

The DJ line-up includes some of the world's most innovative icons in dance music, including Matinée Spain all-star DJs Taito Tikaro, Javier Medina and Flavio Zarza. Billboard #1 remixers/producers Hector Fonseca, Alyson Calagna, DJ Theresa, Ed Baily, Brazil's Rodolfo Bravat, and red-hot rising stars Nina Flowers, Justin Dawson, Ryan Kenney, Luis Perez, Derek Monteiro and Billy Lacey will also headline.

Weekend passes start at $99.
