Celebrate the Joys of Safe Sex With the 1985 PlaySafe Playmates ...

The men in this calendar believe in a beautiful new idea. That sex can still be fun ... and safe.

AIDS has brought change into our lives. And, change can be frightening. Yet, from it can come growth and awareness.

These 13 men of Houston are each meeting this challenge in a way that complements their own lifestyle. Some of them have lovers. Some are dating. Others are "somewhat active." Yet, all are agreeing on two things: It is risky to exchange body fluids (semen, blood, urine and stool) during sex. And, it is even riskier to exchange these fluids with multiple partners.

How do YOU change? That's a personal choice that only you can make. But, please remember, what you do affects so many others — perhaps even someone you love.

So join our calendar playmates as they celebrate the joys of safe sex. Explore new territories—intimacy, romance, joint j/o sessions, cuddling, fantasies ... use your imagination.

Change? You're a member of what may become the most health conscious segment of mankind. So relax ... play safe ... and enjoy.

Caution: Safe Sex
may be habit forming.
